The Big & Blue Way to Strategic HR and Payroll Management

Our client here is a company that manufactures and markets computer hardware and software, besides offering infrastructure, hosting and consulting services, in areas ranging from mainframe computers to nanotechnology. The company's subsidiary in Singapore needed a solution that could unify its disparate systems for HRMS and Payroll so as to reap the benefits of common resources and a centralized control-point.

The Change that was Needed

In addition to the various inherent challenges that users faced due to disparate systems, the company had to address issues regarding compliance with communication, technology, audit, statutory and regulatory requirements. Some challenges faced, included:

- Interfacing multiple systems for unified data posting to the global HRMS
- Processing multiple payrolls in different entities from one application
- Tracking loans provided to employees and ceasing loan deductions
- Handling employee stock purchase plan
- Generating encrypted files to transact with different banks

How Ramco Fulfilled the Need

- On-time delivery with adherence to stringent timelines and audit/compliance requirements
- Strong product documentation and technology backbone
- Use of on-site/offshore model, effectively reducing cost savings
- Use of different encryption tools to communicate sensitive information to banks
- Coordination with multiple stake holders in different geographic regions
- Parallel implementation for two entities with different payroll systems and delivery models

Major Benefits

Ramco played a crucial role in streamlining the work process flow and handling the employee life-cycle in its entirety. The solution proved to be a glove-fit, fulfilling all the requirements satisfactorily, while being simple and easy to use.
