5. Chargeability to tax

- (1) A company may be charged to tax
  - (a) in its own name;
  - (b) in the name of any principal officer, attorney, factor, agent or representative of the company in Nigeria in the same manner or amount that the company would have been charged; or
  - (c) in the name of its receiver, liquidator, or administrator, in the same manner or amount that the company would have been charged if no receiver, liquidator or administrator had been appointed.
- (2) An individual may be charged to tax
  - (a) in the individual's name;
  - (b) in the name of a family, trustee or estate; or
  - (c) in the name of an administrator, or any attorney, agent or representative in Nigeria, in like manner and to like amount as such an individual would have been charged if no administrator, attorney, agent or representative had been appointed.

PART II

TAXATION OF RESIDENT PERSONS

6. Nigerian company

- (1) The profits of a Nigerian company are deemed to accrue in Nigeria wherever the profits arise and whether or not such profits have been brought into or received in Nigeria.
- (2) Where a foreign company which is controlled by a Nigerian company has not, in a year, distributed profits to its shareholders, the proportion of the profits of the controlled foreign company attributable to the Nigerian company, which could have been distributed without detriment to the company's business shall be construed as distributed and included in the profits of the Nigerian company for the purposes of subsection (1) of this section.
- (3) Where the income tax paid by a non-resident company which is a subsidiary of a Nigerian company or a member of a multinational group of a Nigerian company in any year yields less than the minimum effective tax rate prescribed by this Act, the Nigerian parent company shall pay an amount to make that non-resident subsidiary's income tax equal to the minimum effective tax rate.
- (4) The Nigeria Revenue Service (the Service) shall provide detailed rules for the implementation of subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

7. Nigerian dividends

(1) Nigerian dividends include —

- (a) dividend distributed by a Nigerian company, and shall be the gross amount of that dividend before any deduction: and
- (b) any amount of the undistributed profit of a Nigerian company, which is treated as distributed under the provisions of any law in Nigeria.
- (2) The income from a dividend distributed by a Nigerian company is deemed to arise on the day on which payment of that dividend becomes due.

8. Profits of a company from certain dividends

- (1) A company shall include dividend income in its profits, gross of any tax paid or deducted at source.
- (2) Dividends received by a Nigerian company by way of shares of the paying company shall not be included in its profits chargeable to tax under this Act and shall not be subject to the deduction prescribed under section 50 of the Nigeria Tax Administration Act.

9. Substitution of dividend for total profit

- (1) Where a Nigerian company declares dividend out of profits on which no tax is payable due to
  - (a) there being no total profits; or
  - total profits which are less than the amount of dividend which it declared, whether or not the recipient of the dividend is a Nigerian company, the company paying the dividend shall be charged to tax at the rate prescribed in section 56 of this Act as if the dividend is the total profits of the company for the year of assessment to which the accounts, out of which the dividend is declared, relates.

- (2) The provisions of subsection (1) shall not apply to
  - (a) dividends declared out of the retained earnings of a company, to the extent that the profits or gains included in the retained earnings have been taxed under the provisions of this Act;
  - (b) dividends declared out of profits or gains that are exempt from income tax by this Act;
  - (c) franked investment income as provided in this Act; or
  - (d) distributions made by a real estate investment company to its shareholders from rental income and dividend income received on behalf of those shareholders, whether such dividends are paid out of profits of the year in which the dividend is declared or out of profits of previous reporting periods.

10. Certain undistributed profits may be treated as distributed

- (1) Where a Nigerian company controlled by not more than five individuals, has not distributed to its shareholders as dividend, profits made in any period for which accounts have been made up by such company, the Service may direct that the proportion of the profits of the company, which could have been distributed without detriment to the company's business, be construed as distributed.
- (2) The gross amount of profits construed as distributed under the provisions of subsection (1) shall constitute a taxable income in the hand of individual shareholders of the company in proportion to their shareholdings in the ordinary capital of the company on the day of the deemed distribution.
- (3) Any direction by the Service under this section shall be made in writing, and be served upon the company, and shall specify the
  - (a) day to be taken for the purposes of this section:
  - (b) gross amount of those profits so deemed to be distributed:
  - (c) rate applied for the deduction at source, being the rate prescribed by the Nigeria Tax Administration Act; and
  - (d) net amount after the deduction at source.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, the Service may give notice to any company, which it has reason to believe is controlled by not more than five individuals, requiring it to supply, within such time as contained in such notice, full particulars of its shareholders.
- (5) In the case of a limited liability partnership, all the profits of the partnership shall be deemed as distributed, and taxable income, proportionately, in the hands of the respective partners.
- (6) Any direction by the Service under this section with respect to the profits of any accounting period of a company shall be made not later than three years after the receipt by the Service of the duly audited accounts of the company for that period.
- (7) A company in respect of which a direction is made under this section, shall have a right of appeal in accordance with chapter four of the Nigeria Tax Administration Act.

11. Partnership of companies

(1) Where two or more companies carry out a trade or business in a partnership, joint venture or a similar arrangement in Nigeria, any income or profit arising therefrom shall constitute a source of profits and each company's share shall be taxed separately.

- (2) Where any of the companies in the partnership is a non-resident, its share of income or profit from the partnership is chargeable to tax under this Act.
- (3) In the case of partnership carried on in a country other than Nigeria, the partner that is taxable in Nigeria shall include its share of revenue and cost, or profits in its assessable profits for the relevant year of assessment, and shall supply to the tax authority, particulars of the determination of the revenue and cost, or profit, with necessary adjustments made in accordance with the relevant provisions of chapter two of this Act.
- (4) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any partnership engaged in petroleum operations under chapter three of this Act.

12. Resident individual

The income, gains or profits of an individual who is a resident of Nigeria are chargeable to tax in Nigeria wherever they arise, and whether or not the income, profits or gains have been brought into or received in Nigeria.

13. Employment income

- (1) The income, gain or profit from an employment is derived from Nigeria where —
  - (a) the employee is a resident of Nigeria; or
  - (b) the duties of the employment are wholly or partly performed in Nigeria and the remuneration is—
    - (i) paid by, or on behalf of, an employer who is a resident of Nigeria;
    - (ii) borne by a Nigerian fixed base, permanent establishment or any other form of taxable presence of a non-resident employer; or
    - (iii) not liable to tax in the employee's country of tax residence.
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1)(b) of this section, the employment income of a non-resident employee shall not be taxed in Nigeria where the—
  - (a) employer is a start-up, or is engaged in technology-driven services or creative arts; and
  - (b) the employment income is taxable in the employee's country of tax residence.
- (3) The remunerations of an employee of the Government of Nigeria is derived from Nigeria where the employee performs the duties of that employment in a country which, under an agreement or diplomatic privileges, exempts the remuneration from tax.
- (4) Where the duties of an employment are wholly or mainly performed in Nigeria, the remuneration from the employment during any period of leave or temporary absence from Nigeria is derived from Nigeria.

- (5) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the remuneration of an individual from an employment is chargeable to tax in Nigeria where the individual is a
  - (a) seafarer serving under articles which he had signed in Nigeria, or is performing a stand-by duty on-board a ship preparatory to his signing articles in Nigeria;
  - (b) Nigerian and performs the duties of that employment in a foreign country, and that country exempts the remuneration from tax under an agreement or diplomatic arrangement to which Nigeria is a party; or
  - (c) Nigerian and performs the duties of the employment in Nigeria for a foreign country or international organisation, and that remuneration is not subject to tax in any other country under an agreement or diplomatic arrangement to which Nigeria is a party.
- (6) For the purposes of this section—
  - (a) "financial technology" means the development and use of software or technology as the primary and principal mode of providing financial solution or service:
  - (b) "shared services" means services provided by a member of a group of companies solely and exclusively to the other members of the group; and
  - (c) "Start-up" means a Nigerian company granted start-up label under the Nigeria Start-up Act, 2022."
  - (d) "technology driven services" means financial technology (fintech), shared services, computer software or application development, virtual learning or any other business that the Minister may designate, by Order published in the Federal Government Official Gazette;

14. Benefits in kind

- (1) Where an employer incurs an expense in the provision of any benefit or perquisite, other than the provision of living accommodation to which this section relates, the following provisions shall apply
  - (a) where any asset belonging to the employer is used wholly or partly in the making of such provisions, the employee is deemed to have earned annual benefit of an amount equal to 5% of the amount expended by the employer in acquiring the asset, but if that amount cannot be so ascertained, 5% of the market value of the asset at the time of the acquisition, as may be determined by the relevant tax authority:
  - (b) where any sum by way of rent or hire is payable by the employer in respect of any such asset, the employee is deemed to have earned annual benefit of an amount equal to the annual amount of the rent or hire payable by the employer on the asset; and

- (c) in any other case, the employee is deemed to have earned annual benefits equal to the annual amount expended by the employer in connection with the benefit thereon.
- (2) The amount of benefit under subsection (1)(a) of this section shall be reduced by so much of any expense made by the employee in respect thereon.
- (3) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any expenses incurred by an employer —
  - in connection with the provision of meals in any canteen in which meals are provided for the staff generally or meal vouchers for employees;
  - (b) in the provision of any uniform, overall or other protective clothing, work tools or work equipment; or
  - (c) in connection with change in place of residence of the employee by reason of a change of the employee's employment or place of exercising the employment.
- (4) A reference in this subsection to expenses incurred in connection with any matter includes a reference to a proportion of any expenses incurred partly in connection with that matter.
- (5) A reference in this section to anything provided for an employee shall, unless the reference is expressly to something provided for the employee, be construed as including a reference to anything provided for the spouse, family, servant, dependant or guest of that employee by the employer.
- (6) Where premises in Nigeria are made available by an employer to the employee, the spouse or family, and the employee
  - (a) pays no rent for the premises; or
  - (b) pays a rent less than the annual rental value of the premises, the employee shall be treated as being in receipt of additional emoluments equal to the annual rental value of the premises subject to a maximum of 20% of annual gross income from the employment, excluding the rental value.

- (7) In this section, "annual value of the premises" means
  - (a) in relation to premises that are subject to a law governing assessment of local rates, the annual rental value of the premises as determined for the purposes of local rates under that law;
  - (b) in any other case, the annual rental value as determined by the relevant tax authority; and

- a reference in this section to annual value shall include a reference, where applicable, to such proper proportion of the annual value in relation to —
  - (i) a period of occupation within a year,
  - (ii) the part of the premises occupied, or
  - (iii) both a period of occupation within a year and the part of the premises occupied, as may be determined by the relevant tax authority.

15. Partnership of individuals

- (1) The gains or profits of a partner from a partnership shall be the sum of
  - (a) any remuneration, interest on capital, cost of passages wholly or mainly undertaken for the purpose of leave or recreation, or any other perquisite or benefits in kind which is charged to the partnership accounts in respect of that partner; and
  - (b) the partner's share in the profits of the partnership, computed in accordance with chapter two of this Act, after the deduction of charges to which paragraph (a) of this subsection applies in respect of all the partners,
    - provided that in arriving at the gains or profits of a partnership, private or domestic expense of a partner shall not be deducted.
- (2) Where the income computed under subsection (1)(b) of this section results in a loss for the partnership, the partner's share of the loss shall be deducted from the gains or profits ascertained under the provisions of subsection (1)(a) of this section and the partner shall be deemed to have incurred a loss in the trade or business of the partnership to the extent, if any, by which the deductible share of loss exceeds those gains or profits.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1) of this section, a partner's share of the partnership's profits or losses shall be determined in the proportion specified in the partnership agreement as if the entire profits or losses were distributed among the partners, and where there is no partnership agreement, the profits or loss of the partnership shall be distributed equally among the partners.
- (4) The gains, profits or losses of a partner for any period, ascertained under this section, shall be deemed, for the purposes of chapter two, to be the partner's income or loss from a trade, business, profession or vocation carried on during that period, and the provisions of section 20 shall not apply.

- (5) The determination of the profits or losses that is attributable to a partner from a partnership shall be made by the relevant tax authority in relation to that partnership, and where any partner is taxable for a year of assessment in the territory of another relevant tax authority, the relevant tax authority in relation to that partnership shall make available to that other tax authority, particulars of the determination of profits or losses.
- (6) The income of a partner from a partnership in Nigeria shall be attributable to relevant territories in Nigeria in accordance with the Thirteenth Schedule to this Act.
- (7) The partner, employee or agent in charge of the principal office or place of business of a partnership in Nigeria shall, without notice or demand, register or cause to be registered with the relevant tax authority, a certified copy of the partnership deed or, where no written deed is in existence, particulars of any written or oral agreement under which the partnership exists, and where any such particulars have been registered, a notice of any change in the agreement shall be registered with that tax authority within 30 days of the change.
- (8) Where the particulars of a partnership have been registered under the provisions of subsection (7) of this section, the computation of the gains or profits of a partner, may be made by the relevant tax authority on the basis of those particulars as they apply at any relevant time.
- (9) Where the particulars of a partnership are not registered, in compliance with subsection (7) of this section, tax may be assessed and charged by the relevant tax authority as though the whole gains or profits of such partnership accrued to any individual partner or were divisible between the partners, as may appear just and reasonable to that tax authority.

16. Settlement, trust and estate

The income of an individual, a trustee or executor from a settlement, trust, or estate of a deceased person, made, created or administered in or outside Nigeria, shall be ascertained in accordance with the provisions of the Fifth Schedule to this Act.

PART III

TAXATION OF NON-RESIDENT PERSONS

17. Non-resident person

- (1) The income, profits or gains of a non-resident person accruing in, or derived from Nigeria are chargeable to tax in accordance with the provisions of this Act.
- (2) Gains derived by a non-resident person from disposal of chargeable assets are taxable in Nigeria where the gains relate to —

18. Non-Resident person engaged in shipping or air transport

- (1) Where a non-resident person carries on the business of transport by sea or air, and any ship or aircraft owned, leased or chartered by it calls at any port in Nigeria, the non-resident person is chargeable to tax on the profits arising from the carriage of passengers, mails, livestock or goods shipped from, or loaded into an aircraft or ship, in Nigeria.
- (2) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to passengers, mails, livestock or goods which are brought into Nigeria solely for trans-shipment or for transfer from one aircraft to another or between an aircraft and a ship.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1) of this section, where the Service is satisfied that the tax authority of the country of residence of a non-resident person computes and assesses the profits of its resident that operates ships or aircraft to Nigeria on a basis not materially different from that prescribed in this Act, the total profits or loss derived from Nigeria for that period shall be determined, using
  - (a) the ratio of profits or loss of the company, before any allowance by way of depreciation, of an accounting period to the gross revenue in respect of carriage of passengers, mails, livestock or goods (global adjusted profit ratio); and
  - (b) the ratio of allowances by way of depreciation for that period to the gross revenue by the company in respect of carriage of passengers, mails, livestock or goods (global depreciation ratio).

- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3) of this section, the total profits of a period shall be taken to be the proportion to the gross revenue in respect of the carriage of passengers, mails, livestock or goods shipped or loaded in Nigeria, which is determined by applying the —
  - (a) global adjusted profit ratio to the gross revenue in respect of the carriage of passengers, mails, livestock or goods shipped or loaded in Nigeria to arrive at the assessable profits; and
  - (b) global depreciation ratio to the gross revenue in respect of the carriage of passengers, mails, livestock or goods shipped or loaded in Nigeria, in place of any allowances to be given under the provisions of part I of the First Schedule.

[First Schedule]

- (5) Where at the time of assessment, the provisions of subsection (3) and (4) of this section cannot for any reason be satisfactorily applied, the total profits shall be
  - (a) the amount resulting from multiplying the turnover generated from Nigeria by the profit margin as defined under section 17(9)(e) of this Act; or
  - (b) the profits deemed to be derived from Nigeria, which, on the direction of the Service, shall be computed on a fair percentage of the gross revenue in respect of the carriage of passengers, mails, livestock and goods shipped from or loaded in Nigeria.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, the tax payable by a person for any year of assessment shall not be less than 2% of the gross revenue in respect of the carriage of passengers, mails, livestock or goods shipped from, or loaded into an aircraft in Nigeria, which shall be computed, assessed and paid on monthly basis.
- (7) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, where a person to which this section applies files a tax return and does not provide a separate financial statement of the Nigerian operations, such person shall submit detailed gross revenue statements of its Nigerian operations, certified by one of its directors and its external auditors, and supported with the contract agreements.
- (8) The provisions of this section shall not apply to income or profits arising from leasing of vessels or containers, non-freight operations or any other incidental income, such income or profits are chargeable to tax under relevant provisions of this Act.
- (9) Regulatory agencies in the shipping and air transport, and other relevant sectors shall mandate all persons taxable under the provisions of this section to, as a condition to carry on business in Nigeria or obtain any relevant approvals or permits, present the following —

- (a) evidence of income tax filing for the preceding tax year;
- (b) Tax Clearance Certificates, showing income taxes paid for the three preceding tax years; or
- (c) evidence of tax declaration and payment in respect of the intended carriage or shipment.

19. Nigerian dividends received by Non-Resident persons

- (1) There shall be no further tax charged in respect of any dividend received by a non-resident from a Nigerian company other than tax deducted at source under the Nigeria Tax Administration Act;
- (2) Nothing in this Act shall confer on the non-resident or the Nigerian company paying the dividend, a right to repayment of tax paid under section 50 of the Nigeria Tax Administration Act.

PART IV

ASCERTAINMENT OF PROFITS AND INCOME

20. Deductions allowed

- (1) Except where the provisions of section 18 of this Act or part XI of chapter two apply, for the purposes of ascertaining the profits or loss from any trade, business, profession or vocation under this Act, there shall be deducted all expenses for that period wholly and exclusively incurred in the production of the income, including —
  - (a) any sum payable by way of interest on debt employed in generating the income of the trade, business, profession or vocation, subject to the provisions of the Third Schedule to this Act;
  - (b) rent and premiums, incurred during that period, in respect of land or building occupied for the purposes of generating the income;

- (p) any expense on which Value Added Tax is due under this Act but was not charged, or in the case of imported items, any expense on which the applicable import duty or levy was not paid.

PART V

ASCERTAINMENT OF ASSESSABLE PROFITS AND INCOME

22. Basis for computing assessable profits for trade or business

- (1) Except as provided in this section, the profits of any trade, business, profession or vocation for each year of assessment (the assessable profits) shall be the profits of the accounting period immediately preceding the year of assessment from all sources.
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, the assessable profits of the first year of assessment for a new business, shall be the profits from the date in which such trade, business, profession or vocation commences in Nigeria to the end of the first accounting period.

23. Change in accounting date

- (1) Where a taxable person changes the date to which it usually computes its assessable profits, the basis period for the computation of the assessable profits for the relevant year of assessment shall be the period commencing from the first day after the basis period of the immediately preceding year of assessment up to the new date on which the account was made, and the assessable profits of subsequent years of assessments shall be computed on the basis of the new accounting period.
- (2) Where there is a change in the accounting date under subsection (1) of this section, the taxable person shall notify the relevant tax authority not later than 30 days before the usual due date of filing its income tax returns.

24. Cessation of trade or business

- (1) Where a trade, business, profession or vocation permanently ceases to carry on operations in Nigeria in an accounting period, the assessable profits for the relevant year of assessment shall be the amount of the profits from the beginning of the accounting period to the date of cessation and the tax shall be payable within six months from the date of cessation.
- (2) Where, after the date of cessation, the trade, business, profession or vocation, or its receivers or liquidators, receive or pay any sum which ought to have been included in or deducted from the profits of that trade or business if it had been received or paid prior to that date, such sum shall be deemed for the purposes of this Act to have been received or paid by the trade, business, profession or vocation on the last day before such cessation occurred and such sums shall be disclosed to the relevant tax authority within one month of the receipt or payment.
- (3) Where the provisions of subsection (2) of this section apply, any additional assessment or claim for reduction of assessment or repayment of tax shall be made as may be necessary to give effect to the provisions, provided that the provisions of the Nigeria Tax Administration Act relating to objections and appeals shall apply to the additional assessment or claim of reduction of assessment or repayment of tax under this subsection.
- (4) In the case of a deceased individual, where the personal representative after death, receives or pays any sum which would have been included in or deducted from the gains or profits from the trade, business, profession or vocation carried on prior to death, that sum shall be deemed for all purposes of this Act to have been received or paid by the deceased, on the last day prior to the death.

25. Continuity of trades, etc.

An individual carrying on a trade, business, profession or vocation, shall not be treated as having commenced or ceased to do so solely by reason of a change in the territory in which the individual is resident from one year to another, or by reason of becoming or ceasing to be a partner in a partnership if the nature of the trade carried on by that partnership is the same as that carried on before or after the individual became or ceased to be a partner.

26. Basis for computing assessable income

- (1) With respect to income from an employment or pension, the assessable income of an individual shall be the amount of the income of the year of assessment.
- (2) For the purpose of subsection (1) of this section, income from an employment shall be deemed to arise from day to day except to the extent that it is derived from any bonus, commission or allowance payable on one occasion only or at intervals exceeding one month, and to that extent it shall be deemed to be income —

- (a) of the day on which it is paid; or
- (b) where it is paid after the cessation of the employment, of the last day of the employment including any terminal benefit arising therefrom.
- (3) With respect to disposal of a chargeable asset, the assessable income of an individual shall be the amount of the chargeable gains accruing from assets disposed during the year immediately preceding the year of assessment, except for chargeable gains accruing from the disposal of chargeable assets used in the individual's trade, business, profession or vocation, which shall be those disposed during the year immediately preceding the year of assessment.
- (4) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, the assessable income of a trustee, or of an executor of the estate of a deceased individual, or of a beneficiary of a trust or estate for any year of assessment shall be the income of that person for the year preceding that year of assessment as determined under the provisions of the Fifth Schedule to this Act.

[Fifth Schedule]

ASCERTAINMENT OF TOTAL PROFITS OF A COMPANY

27. Ascertainment of total profits of companies

(1) The total profits of a company for any year of assessment, shall be the amount of its total assessable profits from all sources, including chargeable gains computed in accordance with part VIII of chapter two, less the amount of any loss ascertained in accordance with subsection (6) of this section, and capital allowance in accordance with the provisions of part I of the First Schedule to this Act.

[First Schedule]

(2) The capital allowance to be deducted in accordance with the provisions of part I of the First Schedule shall be the amount relating to the qualifying capital expenditure incurred in generating the assessable profits, provided that where Value Added Tax is due under this Act but not charged on an asset, or in the case of an imported item, where the applicable import duty or levy was not paid, the relevant expenditure shall not be eligible as a qualifying capital expenditure.

- (3) Where the qualifying capital expenditure is in relation to an asset that is only partly utilised in generating the assessable profits, the capital allowance on such qualifying capital expenditure shall be prorated and only the portion relating to the taxable income shall be allowed as a deduction.
- (4) The capital allowance computed shall not be prorated where the non-taxable income constitutes less than 10% of the total income of the company.
- (5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (4), the portion of capital allowance attributable to priority activities of a company that enjoys economic development incentive under this Act shall be deducted only from the assessable profits of the priority business, provided that —
  - in no circumstances shall the aggregate loss deductions from the assessable profits or income exceed the amount of that loss;
  - (b) loss can only be deducted from the trade or business in which the loss was incurred;
  - (c) the loss shall be deducted to the extent possible from the amount of the assessable profits of the first year of assessment after that in which the loss was incurred, and in subsequent years until the loss is fully recouped; and
  - (d) the loss incurred during any year of assessment shall be computed, in accordance with the basis period provided in sections 22 to 25 of this Act.
- (6) Notwithstanding subsection (6) of this section or any provision of this Act, any loss incurred in any period from sales, disposal or any other transaction in digital assets shall only be deductible in determining the profits from the business relating to digital assets.

PART VII ASCERTAINMENT OF TOTAL INCOME OF AN INDIVIDUAL

28. Total income of an individual

- (1) The total income of an individual for any year of assessment is the taxable income less total deduction.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) of this section
  - (a) taxable income is the aggregate amount of —

- assessable profits from trade, business, profession or vocation ascertained in accordance with part V of chapter two of this Act,
- (ii) employment income,
- (iii) income from investing activities,
- (iv) profits or income from any other source, and
- (v) chargeable gains from the disposal of chargeable assets; and
- (b) total deduction is the sum of
  - any loss ascertained in accordance with subsection (2) of this section,
  - (ii) capital allowance in accordance with the provisions of part I of the First Schedule to this Act.
  - (iii) income of the individual that is exempt from tax under this Act, and
  - (iv) income of the individual on which the tax deducted at source under section 50 of the Nigeria Tax Administration Act is the final tax.

[First Schedule]

- (3) The loss to be deducted in arriving at the total income of an individual is
  - (a) the amount of a loss incurred by the individual during the year or preceding year of assessment in a trade, business, profession or vocation; and
  - (b) the amount of loss incurred on the disposal of a chargeable asset,

provided that -

- (i) in no circumstances shall the aggregate loss deductions from income exceed the amount of that loss,
- (ii) the loss shall be deducted as far as possible from assessable profit of a trade, business, profession or vocation of the first year of assessment after that in which the loss was incurred, and in subsequent years until the loss is fully recouped,
- the loss incurred during any year of assessment shall be computed, in accordance with the basis period contained in part V of chapter two of this Act, and

(iv) any loss incurred in any period from sales, disposal or any other transaction in digital assets shall only be deductible against the profit or gain from digital assets.

29. Presumptive taxation

Notwithstanding any provisions of chapter two of this Act, where for all practical purposes, the income of a person chargeable to tax under this Act cannot be ascertained or records are not kept in such a manner as to enable proper assessment of income, then such person shall be assessed on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the Minister in a regulation under a presumptive tax regime.

30. Ascertainment of chargeable income of individuals

- (1) The chargeable income of an individual, is the total income of that individual ascertained under the provisions of section 28 of this Act, less eligible deductions.
- (2) For the purposes of this section
  - (a) "Eligible Deductions" include payments made by the individual in a year of assessment in respect of —
    - (i) the individual's contributions under the National Housing Fund,
    - (ii) the individual's contributions under the National Health Insurance Scheme,
    - (iii) the individual's contributions under the Pension Reform Act,
    - (iv) interest on loans for developing an owner-occupied residential house.
    - (v) annual amount of any annuity or premium paid by the individual during the year preceding the year of assessment in respect of insurance on his life or the life of his spouse, or contract for a deferred annuity on his own life or the life of his spouse, and
    - (vi) rent relief of N200,000 or 20% of annual rent paid, whichever is lower, provided that the individual accurately declares the actual amount of rent paid and other relevant information as may be prescribed by the relevant tax authority.
  - (b) "total income" means total income as specified in section 28 of this Act.

31. Deductions to be claimed

Deduction shall not be allowed under this part to any person for a year of assessment, unless claimed in writing in such form as the relevant tax authority may prescribe.

32. Proof of claims

- (1) The relevant tax authority may require a claimant to a deduction under section 30(2)(a) of this Act to produce such documentary evidence as may be necessary in support of any claim and in the absence of such evidence, or where such evidence is inadequate, the relevant tax authority may refuse to allow the deduction or such part of the amount claimed.
- (2) Notwithstanding any provision of this Part, where
  - (a) an individual fails to produce satisfactory documentary evidence in support of a claim under section 30(2)(a) of this Act, any objection to an assessment or, to any rate at which tax is to be deducted, shall be accompanied by a copy of the available documentary evidence or a declaration that such required documentary evidence does not exist; and
  - (b) an individual claims a deduction under this Act for a year of assessment, or produces evidence in support of a claim previously made but not admitted or not admitted in full by the relevant tax authority, such repayment, set-off of tax or reduction in any assessment shall be made so as to give effect to any amount or additional amount of the deduction as appropriate.

PART VIII

ASCERTAINMENT OF CHARGEABLE GAINS

33. Chargeable gains

- (1) Gains accruing to any person in a year of assessment shall be chargeable to tax in accordance with the provisions of this Act.
- (2) Gains on which tax is to be assessed on any person shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of this part.

34. Chargeable assets

- (1) Subject to exemptions as may be provided in part I of chapter eight of this Act, all forms of property shall be chargeable assets for the purposes of this part, whether situated in Nigeria or not, including —
  - (a) any form of asset, shares, options, rights, debts, digital assets and incorporeal property generally;

provided that gains accruing to a person on disposal of shares in any Nigerian company shall not be chargeable gains where —

- (i) the disposal proceeds, in aggregate, is less than N150,000,000 and the chargeable gain does not exceed N10,000,000 in any 12 consecutive months, or
- (ii) the shares are transferred between an Approved Borrower and a Lender in a regulated Securities Lending Transaction;
- (b) any currency other than Nigerian currency; and
- (c) any form of property created by the person disposing of it, or coming to be owned without being acquired.
- (2) This section shall have effect, notwithstanding that the property is an asset in respect of which qualifying capital expenditure had been incurred under any provision of this Act.

35. Disposal of assets

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, there is a disposal of assets by a person where any sum is derived from a sale, lease, transfer, an assignment, a compulsory acquisition or any other disposition of assets, subject to any exemptions as may be provided in chapter eight of this Act.
- (2) Subsection (1) of this section shall apply, notwithstanding that no asset is acquired by the person paying the sum, and in particular where the sum is
  - (a) derived by way of compensation for any loss of office or employment;
  - received under a policy of insurance and the risk of any kind of injury or damage, or the loss or depreciation of assets;
  - received in return for forfeiture or surrender of a right, or for refraining from exercising a right; and
  - (d) received as consideration for use or exploitation of any asset.
- (3) In this part,
  - (a) references to a disposal of assets include, references to a part disposal of assets; and
  - (b) there is a part disposal of assets where
    - (i) an interest or right in or over the assets is created for another person by the disposal, and
    - (ii) a part of the interest in the property which subsists before the disposal remains with the person making the disposal.

36. Disposal of assets: provisions as to considerations

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the acquisition and disposal of an asset by a person shall be deemed to be for a consideration equal to the market value of the asset where the person acquires the asset
  - (a) otherwise than by way of a bargain made at arm's length;
  - (b) wholly or partly for a consideration that cannot be valued;
  - (c) as trustee for creditors of the person making the disposal; or
  - (d) upon devolution on death as a personal representative or legatee of a deceased.
- (2) Where a person disposes of an asset by way of gift, other than asset acquired or disposed by devolution on death, the person acquiring the asset shall, as it relates to the interest taken by the person, be deemed to have acquired the asset
  - (a) for a consideration equal to the amount for which the asset was last disposed of by way of a bargain made at arm's length; or
  - (b) where the amount last disposed of by way of bargain made at arm's length cannot be ascertained, for a consideration equal to the market value of the asset on the date of that disposal.
- (3) Where an asset is held by a person as a nominee or trustee for
  - (a) another person absolutely entitled;
  - (b) an infant or a person with disability; or
  - (c) two or more persons,

the provisions of this part shall apply as if the property were vested in, and the acts of the nominee or trustee in relation to the asset were the acts of the person or persons referred to in this subsection.

- (4) Any acquisition of the asset referred to in subsection (3) of this section by the nominee or trustee or the disposal of the assets to the nominee or trustee shall be disregarded.
- (5) The conveyance or transfer by way of security of an asset or of an interest or right in or over it, or transfer of a subsisting interest or right by way of security in or over an asset, including a re-transfer on redemption of the security, shall not be treated as involving any acquisition or disposal of the asset.
- (6) Any dealing with an asset by a person who has a security interest in it or who has the benefit of a charge against it or an encumbrance against it in order to enforce or give effect to those rights shall be deemed to have been made by that person in his capacity as that person's nominee.

- (7) An asset shall be treated as having been acquired free of any interest or right by way of security subsisting at the time of any acquisition of it, and as being disposed of free of any such interest or right subsisting at the time of the disposal, and where an asset is acquired subject to any such interest or right, the full amount of the liability thereby assumed by the person acquiring the asset shall form part of the consideration for the acquisition and disposal in addition to any other consideration.
- (8) Where an asset is acquired by a creditor in satisfaction of his debt or part thereof —
  - (a) the asset shall not be treated as disposed of by the debtor or acquired by the creditor for a consideration greater than its market value at the time of the creditor's acquisition of it; and
  - (b) chargeable gain accruing to the creditor on disposal of the asset shall not exceed the chargeable gain which would have accrued if he had acquired the property for a consideration equal to the amount of the debt or that part thereof.
- (9) In this section —

"Legatee" includes any person taking under a testamentary disposition or on an intestacy or partial intestacy, whether he is taken as a beneficiary or trustee, and a gift made in contemplation or condition of death shall be treated as a testamentary disposition and not as a gift;

"personal representatives" means —

- (a) the executor or the representative, or administrator for the time being of a deceased person under any law in force in Nigeria; or
- (b) persons who, under the law of another country, have functions corresponding to personal representatives as defined under paragraph (a) of this subsection.

37. Compulsory acquisition of land

- (1) A person shall not be charged to tax under this Act in respect of gains on any acquisition and disposal of land by reference to a disposal to an authority exercising or having compulsory powers, if that person had not —
  - (a) acquired the land at a time when he knew or might reasonably have known that it was likely to be acquired by the authority; or
  - (b) taken any steps by advertisement or otherwise to dispose of the land or to make his willingness to dispose of it known to the authority or others.

(2) In this section, "authority exercising or having compulsory powers" means, in relation to any disposal of land, an authority, a person or body of persons acquiring the land compulsorily under the Land Use Act (Cap L5, LFN 2004), or any other similar enactment or law of a country other than Nigeria, or who has or have been, or may be, authorised to acquire it compulsorily for the purposes for which it is acquired, or for whom another authority, person or body of persons has or have been, or may be, authorised so to acquire it.

38. Date of acquisition or disposal, etc.

Any asset acquired or disposed of by a person chargeable to tax shall, be deemed to have been acquired or disposed of at the date at which there is an enforceable right to acquire or a binding duty to dispose of the asset or any right or interest in it, and in particular, where —

- (a) any contract is to be performed subject to any condition, the date of acquisition or disposal of the asset shall be the date the condition is satisfied:
- (b) consideration under the contract does not depend solely or mainly on the value of the asset at the time the condition is satisfied, the acquisition or disposal shall be treated as if the contract had never been conditional, in which case the date of the acquisition or disposal of the asset shall be the date of the contract; or
- (c) an option is conferred by virtue of any contract, the date of the acquisition or disposal of the asset shall be the date when the option is exercised.

39. Computation of chargeable gains

The gains chargeable to tax shall, subject to other provisions of this Act, be computed as follows —

- (a) in the case of a disposal of an asset used for a trade, business, profession or vocation, for which capital allowance has been made in accordance with the First Schedule to this Act, only the residue of that asset shall be deducted from the disposal proceeds for the purposes of computing chargeable gains; and
- (b) where capital allowance has not been made in accordance with the First Schedule to this Act, the chargeable gain shall be determined by deducting from the disposal proceeds, the amount or value of the consideration, in money or money's worth incurred, wholly and exclusively for the acquisition of the asset.

[First Schedule]

40. Expenses incurred for disposal of chargeable assets

- (1) Any incidental cost incurred wholly and exclusively for the purpose of disposal of a chargeable asset is deductible from the disposal proceeds for the purposes of determining the chargeable gain.
- (2) Where an asset is sold and immediately reacquired, the expenditure shall not be regarded as incidental to the sale or re-acquisition.

41. Part disposal

- (1) Where a part of an asset is disposed or where some property derived from an asset remains undisposed after a disposal of the asset
  - the acquisition cost of the assets, together with any expenditure wholly and exclusively incurred for the purpose of enhancing the value of the asset; or
  - the residue, in the case of assets used for trade or business on which capital allowance have been made in accordance with the First Schedule to this Act, shall be apportioned between the disposed part and the undisposed part.

- (2) Apportionment shall be made by reference to
  - (a) the amount or value of the consideration for the disposal on the one hand, referred to as "A", and
  - (b) the market value of the property which remains undisposed on the other hand referred to as "B",
- (3) The acquisition cost or residue of the disposed part shall be apportioned by applying the fraction A/(A+B), and the remainder shall be attributed to the part which remains undisposed.
- (4) Where a portion of interest or right in a chargeable asset is disposed, and some part of that asset or any description of property derived from the asset remains undisposed, the cost of acquisition in addition to any incidental cost of the acquisition, or residue of the asset, shall be apportioned based on the value of the sale compared to the market value of the undisposed portion.

42. Consideration due after time of disposal

(1) Where the consideration or part of a consideration, taken into account in the computation of chargeable gains under section 39 of this Act, is payable by instalments over a period exceeding twelve months, beginning from the time when the disposal is made, the chargeable gain accruing on the disposal shall be regarded as accruing in proportionate parts in the period of

- assessment in which the disposal is made and in subsequent periods of assessments, until the last instalment is payable.
- (2) The proportionate parts to be recorded as accruing in the respective periods of assessment shall correspond to the proportions of the amounts of the instalments of consideration payable in those respective periods of assessment.
- (3) The time in the year or accounting period when any part of a chargeable gain is deemed to accrue under this section shall be the last day in that year of assessment, except in the case of cessation of a trade, business, profession or vocation, or death of the alienator, where such part shall be deemed to accrue on the date of cessation or death.
- (4) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to any part of the consideration which has effectively passed to the person making the disposal by way of a loan made to that person by the other party to the transaction.
- (5) In the computation of chargeable gains under this section
  - (a) consideration for the disposal shall, in the first instance, be brought into account without
    - (i) any adjustment for postponement of the right to receive any part of it, and
    - (ii) regard to a risk of any part of the consideration being irrecoverable, or to the right to receive any part of the consideration being contingent; and
  - (b) where any part of the consideration so brought into account is subsequently shown to the satisfaction of the relevant tax authority to be irrecoverable, such adjustment, whether by way of discharge, or repayment of tax or otherwise, shall be made as required.

43. Assets lost or destroyed

- (1) Where an asset is lost or destroyed, and a capital sum received by way of compensation for the loss or destruction is applied within three years of receipt in acquiring another asset in its replacement, the owner shall, where the compensation received together with the residual or scrap value is —
  - (a) greater than the cost of the asset acquired in replacement of the lost or destroyed asset, be deemed to make a chargeable gain; and
  - (b) lower than the cost of the asset acquired in its replacement, be deemed, for the purposes of the First Schedule to this Act, to have acquired an additional asset for an amount equal to the cost of that new asset, less the compensation together with the residual or scrap value.

[First Schedule]

(2) Except for the additional asset acquired under subsection (1)(b), allowance to be claimed on the new asset for the purposes of the First Schedule to this Act shall be limited to the residue of the old asset, if any.

44. Bargains comprising of two or more transactions

- (1) Where a single bargain comprises two or more transactions whereby assets are disposed of, those transactions shall be treated for the purposes of computing chargeable gains as a single disposal.
- (2) Where separate considerations are agreed or purported to be agreed for any two or more transactions comprised in one bargain, whether transactions whereby assets are disposed of or not, those considerations shall be treated as altogether constituting an entire consideration for the transactions and shall be apportionable between them.
- (3) Where an apportionment under this section results in less consideration being attributed to the chargeable asset than that agreed or purported to be agreed, in the bargain, the separate considerations shall be the consideration for which those assets are disposed of.

45. Valuation at market value

- (1) For the purposes of computing chargeable gains, unless the context otherwise requires, market value, in relation to any asset, means the price which the asset might reasonably be expected to fetch on a sale conducted at arm's length, or in the open market.
- (2) In estimating the market value of any asset in the case of a disposal, no reduction shall be taken into account for cash or bulk discount.
- (3) In determining the acquisition cost of any asset, where the actual consideration paid by the acquirer is less than the market value, the assets shall be deemed to have been acquired for the amount actually paid.

46. Location of asset

For the purposes of chapter two of this Act —

- (a) the situation of rights or interests, other than by way of security, in or over immovable property is that of the immovable property;
- the situation of rights or interests, other than by way of security, in or over tangible movable property is that of the tangible movable property;

"Lottery Trust Fund" refers to the Lottery Trust Fund established pursuant to the National Lottery Act.

63. Collective investment scheme

- (1) Where under the provisions of the Investments and Securities Act (I24, LFN 2004), a mutual fund is established for the purpose of providing facilities for the participation of the public, as beneficiaries under a trust, in profits or income arising from acquisition, holding, management or disposal of securities or any other property, chapter two of this Act shall, in respect of the income arising to the trustees of a collective investment, have effect as if the
  - (a) trustees were a company whose business consists mainly in the making of investments and the principal part of whose income is derived therefrom;
  - (b) rights of the unit holders were shares in the company; and
  - (c) income accruing to the trustees as is available for payment to the unit holders were dividends on such shares, and reference to a company in this Act shall include a collective investment scheme.
- (2) For the purposes of section 27 of this Act, the profits of an authorised collective investment scheme, on which tax, may be imposed, shall be ascertained by taking the income accruing to the trustees from all the investments of the scheme and deducting there from sums disbursed as management expenses, including remuneration for the managers.

- (3) Where the trustees of a scheme receive a payment on which the scheme suffers tax by deduction, not being franked investment income, the tax deducted shall constitute an advance payment of income tax and shall be set off against income tax assessment for that year of assessment in ascertaining the tax payable by the mutual fund or scheme.
- (4) The profit accruing to the trustees of a collective investment that is available for payment to unit holders or for investment shall be deemed to be dividends paid or payable by the trustees to the unit holders in proportion to their rights, and shall be taxed in the hands of the unit holders.

(5) In this section —

"authorised collective investment" means a scheme that is authorised by the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Investment and Securities Act to carry on the business of dealing in a mutual fund scheme or collective investment scheme;

"collective investment scheme" means any arrangement made for the purpose of providing facilities for the participation of the public as beneficiaries under a trust in profits or income arising from the acquisition, holding, management or disposal of securities or any other property;

"scheme" means authorised collective investment;

"trustee" under a collective investment scheme means the person in whom the property for the time being subject to any trust created in pursuance of the scheme is or may be invested in accordance with the terms of the trust; and

"unit holder" means any investor, beneficiary or person who acquired units in a scheme and who is entitled to a share of the investments subject to the trusts of a scheme.

64. Mining operations

- Trade or business engaged in mining operations is subject to tax under the relevant provisions of chapter two of this Act.
- (2) For the purposes of computing the assessable profits of a company engaged in mining operations, any amount contributed to any fund, scheme or arrangement approved by the relevant authority for the purposes of providing for environmental protection, environmental remediation, mine rehabilitation, land reclamation and mine closure shall be tax deductible, provided that the amount so contributed is cash-backed and invested in a dedicated account or trust fund managed by independent trustees or funds.

- (3) Royalty is imposed on any mineral obtained in the course of exploration or mining operations at a rate prescribed under the Eighth Schedule to this Act, subject to the relevant provisions of the Nigeria Tax Administration Act and the royalty paid shall be tax deductible in determining the assessable profits from the trade or business.
- (4) The Service shall be the relevant tax authority for the administration of the royalty imposed under this section.

CHAPTER THREE TAXATION OF INCOME FROM PETROLEUM OPERATIONS

HYDROCARBON TAX, ASCERTAINMENT OF CHARGEABLE PROFITS AND CONSOLIDATION FOR TAX PURPOSES, ETC.

65. Application of this Part

- (1) This part shall apply to companies engaged in upstream petroleum operations in the onshore, shallow water and deep offshore with licences and leases under the Petroleum Industry Act.
- (2) In this part
  - (a) hydrocarbon tax shall apply to crude oil as well as field condensates and liquid natural gas liquids derived from associated gas and produced in the field upstream of the measurement points; and
  - (b) hydrocarbon tax shall not apply to
    - associated natural gas, including gaseous natural gas liquids produced in the field and contained in the rich gas, and nonassociated natural gas,
    - (ii) condensates and natural gas liquids produced from non-associated gas in fields or gas processing plants, provided the related volumes are determined at the measurement points or at the exit of the gas processing plant, regardless of whether the condensates or natural gas liquids are subsequently commingled with crude oil, and
    - (iii) any condensates and natural gas liquids produced from associated gas at gas processing or other facilities downstream of the measurement points.

- (3) The costs of production of associated gas, upstream of the measurement point shall be allocated to crude oil for the purposes of calculating hydrocarbon tax, provided that capital and operating costs for wells solely producing associated gas-cap gas shall not be allocated to crude oil, but shall be claimed under chapter two of this Act.
- (4) This Part shall not apply to a frontier acreage until it is reclassified under section 68 (3) of the Petroleum Industry Act and to deep offshore.
- (5) For the purposes of determining royalties, condensates shall be treated as crude oil and natural gas liquids as natural gas.
- (6) Upstream petroleum operations shall in addition to hydrocarbon tax, be subject to chapter two of this Act.

66. Charge of hydrocarbon tax

Subject to the provisions of section 65(2) of this Act, there is levied upon the profits of any company engaged in upstream petroleum operations in relation to crude oil, a tax to be known as hydrocarbon tax, which shall be charged and assessed upon its profits related to the operations for each accounting period and payable in accordance with this part.

67. Ascertainment of crude oil revenue, adjusted profit, assessable profits

- (1) Subject to this part and the relevant provisions of the Petroleum Industry Act, in relation to any accounting period, the crude oil revenue of a company for that period shall be the value of any chargeable oil adjusted to the measurement points, based on the
  - (a) proceeds of all chargeable oil sold by the company; and
  - (b) value of all chargeable oil disposed by the company.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) of this section, the value of any chargeable oil disposed, shall be regarded as the aggregate of the value of that crude oil determined for royalties for all fields in accordance with this Act, relevant provisions of the Petroleum Industry Act or any other applicable law.
- (3) Subject to section 71(2) of this Act, the adjusted profits of an accounting period shall be the profits of that period after the deductions and additions under section 68 of this Act.
- (4) The assessable profit of an accounting period shall be the adjusted profit of that period after any deduction allowed by section 70 of this Act.

(5) The chargeable profits of an accounting period shall be the assessable profits of that period after the deduction allowed by section 71 of this Act.

68. Allowable deductions.

- (1) In computing the adjusted profit of a company engaged in upstream petroleum operations related to crude oil for any accounting period, there shall be deducted expenses wholly and exclusively incurred during that period for the following —
  - (a) rents incurred by the company for the period pursuant to a petroleum mining lease or petroleum prospecting licence;
  - (b) all royalties incurred by the company during that period in respect of crude oil and associated gas and where payments to the Federation Account from a petroleum mining lease is related to production sharing, profit sharing, risk service contracts or other contractual features under a model contract and the company has incurred liability for such payments;
  - (c) expenses directly incurred for repair of plant, machinery or fixtures employed for the purpose of carrying on production activities or for the renewal, repair or alteration of production implement, utensils or articles so employed;
  - (d) an expenditure, tangible or intangible directly incurred in connection with the drilling of the first exploration well and the first two appraisal wells in the same field, whether the wells are productive or not, provided that subsequent exploration wells, appraisal wells and other wells shall be treated as qualifying drilling expenditure under part II of the First Schedule to this Act and where a deduction may be given under this section in respect of any such expenditure, that expenditure shall not be treated as qualifying drilling expenditure for the purpose of part II of First Schedule to this Act;
  - (e) any amount contributed to a fund, scheme or arrangement relating to abandonment plan approved by the Commission for the purpose of decommissioning and abandonment, provided that the surplus or residue of the fund shall be subject to tax under this part at the end of life of the field, where such surplus is returned to the lessee;
  - (f) all sums incurred by the company to the Federal Government or any State or Local Government Council by way of levies, stamp duties and fees;
  - (g) costs of gas reinjection wells, which are re-injecting natural gas that otherwise would be flared, subject to ratification by the Commission; and

- (h) any amount contributed to any fund, scheme or arrangement approved by the Commission pursuant to the establishment of host communities' development trusts under Chapter 3 of the Petroleum Industry Act, Environmental Remediation Fund, Niger Delta Development Commission and other similar contributions.
- (2) Liability waived, released or recovered shall be treated under this part in accordance with section 194 of this Act.

69. Deductions not allowed

Subject to this part, for the purpose of ascertaining the adjusted profit of a company in the accounting period from its upstream petroleum operations applicable to crude oil, no deduction shall be allowed in respect of —

- expenditure for the purchase of information relating to the existence and extent of petroleum deposits, other than for the acquisition of geophysical, geological and geochemical data and information;
- (b) expenditure incurred as a penalty, natural gas flare fees or imposition relating to natural gas flare;
- (c) financial or bank charges, arbitration and litigation costs, bad debts and interest on borrowing;
- (d) head office or affiliate costs, shared costs, research and development costs or any other like shared indirect production costs;
- (e) production bonuses, signature bonuses paid for the acquisition of, or of rights in or over, petroleum deposits, bonuses or fees paid for renewing petroleum mining lease or petroleum prospecting licence or marginal field or fees paid for assigning rights to another party;
- (f) tax inputted into a contract or an agreement on a net of tax basis and paid by a company on behalf of the vendor or contractor;
- (g) capital withdrawn or sum employed or intended to be employed as capital;
- (h) capital employed in improvements as distinct from repairs;
- sum recoverable under an insurance or contract of indemnity, except an amount that is not recovered under the scheme;
- rent of or cost of repairs to any premises or part of premises not incurred for the purpose of those operations;

- (k) amounts incurred in respect of any income tax, special tax, development levy, profits tax or other similar taxes, whether charged within Nigeria or elsewhere;
- (I) the depreciation of any premises, buildings, structures, works of a permanent nature, plant, equipment, machinery, furniture or fixtures;
- (m) payment to provident, savings, widows and orphans or other society, scheme or fund;
- (n) any contribution to a pension, provident or other society, scheme or fund for production staff which may be approved, with or without retrospective effect, by the National Pension Commission subject to such general conditions or particular conditions, in the case of the society, scheme or fund as the Service may prescribe, provided that any sum received by or the value of any benefit obtained by the company from any approved pension, provident or other society, scheme or fund, in the accounting period of that company shall, for the purpose of section 68 (2) of this Act, be treated as income of the company for that accounting period;
- (o) all customs duties;
- (p) any expense on which Value Added Tax is due under this Act but not charged, or in the case of imported items, any expense on which the applicable import duty or levy was not paid; and
- (q) costs under paragraph 2(2)(c) of the Sixth Schedule to this Act.

[Sixth Schedule]

70. Assessable profits and losses

- (1) The assessable profits for each company or petroleum mining lease for any accounting period shall be the amount of the adjusted profit of that period after the deduction of the amount of any loss incurred by that company during any previous accounting period.
- (2) The assessable profit shall be determined separately for each of the two classes of chargeable tax identified in section 72 (a) and (b) of this Act.
- (3) The loss referred to in subsection (1) of this section shall be deducted to the extent possible from the amount of the adjusted profits of the accounting period immediately succeeding the accounting period in which the loss was incurred, and in subsequent accounting periods, until the loss is fully recouped.

(4) Within five months after the end of any accounting period of a company, or within such further time as the Service may permit in writing, the company may elect in writing that a deduction or any part to be made under this section shall be deferred to and be made in the succeeding accounting period, and may so elect in any succeeding accounting period.

71. Chargeable profits and allowances

- (1) The chargeable profits of a company for any accounting period shall be the amount of the assessable profits of that period after the deduction of any amount to be allowed in accordance with the provisions of this section as follows —
  - (a) the aggregate amount of capital allowances due to the company under the provisions of part II of First Schedule to this Act for the accounting period;
  - (b) the aggregate amount of all production allowances due to the company under the provisions of the Sixth Schedule to this Act for the accounting period; and
  - (c) in the case of acquisition costs of petroleum rights, the value of the rights and the value of the assets acquired shall be reported separately to the Service, provided that the value of the rights shall be eligible for annual allowance of 20% per annum until it is fully written off and the value of the assets shall be depreciated based on the applicable depreciation rates for the respective assets under part II of the First Schedule to this Act.
- (2) In determining the chargeable profit, the total cost shall not exceed the cost-price ratio as determined in the Sixth Schedule to this Act.

[Sixth Schedule]

- (3) The chargeable profits and allowances shall be determined separately for the two classes of assessable profits under section 72 (a) and (b) of this Act.
- (4) Where Value Added Tax is due under this Act but not charged on an asset, or in the case of an imported item, the applicable import duty or levy was not paid, the relevant expenditure shall not be eligible as a qualifying capital expenditure under the provisions of part II of First Schedule to this Act.

72. Chargeable hydrocarbon tax

The chargeable hydrocarbon tax for any accounting period of a company shall be a percentage of the aggregated chargeable profit for that period and it shall be —

- (a) 30% of the profit from crude oil for petroleum mining leases selected under section 93(6)(b) and (7)(b) of the Petroleum Industry Act with respect to onshore and shallow water areas; and
- (b) 15% of profit from crude oil for onshore and shallow water and for petroleum prospecting licences selected under section 93(6)(a) and (7)(a) of Petroleum Industry Act.

73. Additional chargeable tax payable in certain circumstances

- (1) Where, for any accounting period of a company, there is a sale of chargeable oil between connected persons, or disposal of chargeable oil between connected or unconnected persons, and the amount of the chargeable hydrocarbon tax for that period, calculated in accordance with the provisions of this part other than this section, is less than the amount prescribed in subsection (2) of this section, the company shall pay an additional amount of chargeable hydrocarbon tax for that period equal to the difference between those two amounts.
- (2) The amount referred to in subsection (1) of this section is, for any accounting period of a company, the amount which the chargeable hydrocarbon tax for crude oil for that period, calculated in accordance with this part, shall be, if the reference in section 67 (1)(a) of this Act to the proceeds of sale were a reference to the amount obtained by multiplying the number of barrels of that crude oil determined at the measurement point by the fiscal oil price per barrel.
- (3) For the purpose of subsection (2), the Commission shall establish the fiscal oil price at each measurement point on an export parity basis under paragraph 8(1) and (2) of the Seventh Schedule of the Petroleum Industry Act and the total value of the chargeable oil for a company shall be the sum of the multiplications of volume and fiscal oil price at all measurement points as established by the Commission.

[Seventh Schedule]

- (4) The whole of any additional chargeable hydrocarbon tax for crude oil and associated gas payable by a company under this section for any accounting period shall be paid concurrently with the final instalment of the chargeable hydrocarbon tax payable for that period.
- (5) Where there is no fiscal oil price established for a crude oil stream, the Commission shall establish fiscal oil price for such stream and the fiscal oil price per barrel established shall bear a fair and reasonable relationship
  - (a) to the established fiscal oil price of Nigerian crude oil streams of comparable quality and specific gravity; or

(b) where there are no such Nigerian crude oil streams of comparable quality and specific gravity, it shall bear a fair and reasonable relationship to the official selling prices at main international trading centres for crude oil of comparable quality and gravity,

due regard being had in either case to freight differentials and other relevant factors.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision in this part, where crude oil, which in relation to a particular company is its chargeable oil, is sold or disposed by another company, the crude oil shall for the purpose of this section be deemed to be sold or disposed by that particular company.

74. Pre-production cost

Where a company has not commenced the production and sale or disposal of chargeable oil, all costs incurred wholly and exclusively for the purpose of coming into upstream petroleum operations, subject to section 68 and 69 of this Act, shall upon commencement of production and sale or disposal of chargeable oil be deemed to have incurred a qualifying pre-production capital expenditure which shall be amortised in line with paragraphs 2 and 14 of part II of First Schedule to this Act.

[First Schedule]

75. Trade or business sold or transferred

The sale or transfer of a trade or business of upstream petroleum operations carried on in Nigeria by a company to another company shall be treated in accordance with section 191 of this Act.

76. Consolidation of costs and revenue

- (1) A company engaged in upstream petroleum operations across terrains shall be allowed to consolidate costs and incomes for the purpose of income tax under chapter two of this Act.
- (2) A company engaged in upstream petroleum operations related to crude oil across terrains shall be allowed to consolidate costs and revenue for the purposes of hydrocarbon tax, only across assets in which it holds licences and leases in accordance with the two categories of chargeable tax stipulated in section 72 of this Act.

77. Partnerships

- (1) A person, other than a company, who engages in upstream petroleum operations either on his own account or jointly with any other person or in partnership with any other person with a view to sharing the profits arising from the operations; commits an offence.
- (2) Where the person referred to in subsection (1) has benefitted from any profits on upstream petroleum operations, the person shall be subject to

- hydrocarbon tax and income tax under section 78 of this Act on the profits and shall pay a penalty provided under the Nigeria Tax Administration Act.
- (3) Where two or more companies are engaged in upstream petroleum operations either in partnership, in a joint venture or in concert under any scheme or arrangement, tax shall be charged and assessed on them in accordance with subsection (4) of this section.
- (4) The apportionment of any profits, outgoings, expenses, liabilities, deductions, qualifying expenditure and the tax chargeable upon each company shall be in line with the equity interest of the parties under a jointly executed agreement that will be made available to the Service and where no jointly executed agreement is made available, the Commission shall advise the Service of the approved equity interest of the parties and it shall be binding on the parties.
- (5) Subject to this part, where two or more companies are engaged in upstream petroleum operations either in partnership, in a joint venture or in concert under any scheme or arrangement, the Service may make regulations, for the ascertainment of tax to be charged or assessed upon each company so engaged.
- (6) Regulations made under subsection (5) of this section may make provisions —
  - (a) with respect to apportionment of any profits, outgoings, expenses, liabilities, deductions, qualifying expenditure and tax chargeable upon each company;
  - (b) for the computation of any tax as if the partnership, joint venture, scheme or arrangement were carried on by one company and apportion the tax between the companies concerned;
  - (c) to accept other basis of ascertaining the tax chargeable upon each of the companies; or
  - (d) which have regard to any circumstances whereby the operations are partly carried on for any company by an operating company whose expenses are reimbursed by those companies.
- (7) Regulations made under this section may be of general application for the purpose of this section and this part or for a class of arrangement or for a particular application to a specific partnership, joint venture, scheme or arrangement.
- (8) The effect of regulations made under this section shall not impose a greater burden of tax upon any company so engaged in any partnership, joint venture, scheme or arrangement than would have been imposed upon that company under this part, if all things enjoyed, done or suffered by such partnership, joint venture, scheme or arrangement had been enjoyed, done or suffered by that company in the proportion in which it enjoys, does or suffers those things under or by virtue of that partnership, joint venture, scheme or arrangement.

78. Income tax on petroleum operations

- (1) Sections 78 to 88 of this Act and the provisions of chapter two of this Act shall apply to any company, concessionaire, licensee, lessee, contractor or subcontractor involved in the upstream, midstream or downstream petroleum operations under the Petroleum Industry Act.
- (2) For the purpose of determining the value of chargeable crude oil or chargeable gas, in relation to any accounting period, the crude oil and gas revenue of a company for that period shall be the value of any chargeable oil or chargeable gas adjusted to the measurement points, based on the
  - (a) proceeds of all chargeable oil or gas sold by the company; and
  - (b) value of all chargeable oil or gas disposed by the company.
- (3) In determining the income tax under chapter two of this Act, hydrocarbon tax is not deductible.

79. Registration and use of separate company for each stream of petroleum operations

- (1) Subject to sections 142(2) and 197(2) of the Petroleum Industry Act, a person intending to be involved in more than one stream, that is, upstream, midstream or downstream petroleum operations, shall register and use a separate company for each stream of petroleum operations under the Petroleum Industry Act,
  - provided that, for companies with petroleum mining leases selected under section 93(6)(b) and (7)(b) of the Petroleum Industry Act, no stamp duties, Value Added Tax or income tax on chargeable gains shall be levied by the Government on such segregation.
- (2) For strategic projects in the upstream petroleum operations that seek to produce oil and natural gas to be processed or refined to finished petroleum products, and supplied in wholesale solely to the domestic market, such projects shall have the option to be established as an integrated strategic project (ISP), whereby the capital investment in the associated midstream petroleum operations as defined under the Petroleum Industry Act, can be consolidated with the upstream petroleum operations for purposes of tax.

- (3) Where an ISP option is elected, the following provisions shall apply
  - (a) arm's length transfer prices shall be established to fiscalise the hydrocarbons transferred from the upstream petroleum operations to the midstream petroleum operations; and
  - (b) capital investment in the midstream petroleum operations consolidated with upstream petroleum operations shall not be represented for capital allowance when fiscalising the income from midstream petroleum operations.

80. Provisions relating to gas

- (1) In addition to the economic development tax incentive that may be granted under part II of chapter eight of this Act, investors in gas pipeline shall be granted a tax-free period of five years at the expiration of the economic development incentive certificate.
- (2) Natural gas transferred or disposed from the upstream to the midstream or downstream shall be subject to tax under the relevant provisions of chapter two of this Act.
- (3) Natural gas liquids and liquid petroleum gases derived from natural gas shall be subject to income tax under the relevant provisions of chapter two of this Act.

81. Allowances for the purposes of income tax on petroleum operations

- (1) Acquisition costs of petroleum rights shall be eligible for annual allowance at the rate of 20% until the cost is fully written off.
- (2) Capital allowance for other assets shall be granted as follows
  - (a) upstream petroleum operations assets shall be in accordance with part II of the First Schedule to this Act; and
  - (b) midstream and downstream operations shall be in accordance with part I of the First Schedule to this Act.

[First Schedule]

82. Expense deductibility

- (1) For the purpose of determining income tax, section 20 of this Act shall be read in conjunction with the provisions of this subsection as regards the followings —
  - (a) all rents and royalties the liability for which was incurred by the company during that period in respect of crude oil sold, condensate sold and natural gas sold or delivered or disposed of in any other commercial manner and where a petroleum mining lease includes payments to the Federation Account related to production sharing, profit sharing, risk service contracts or other contractual features and the company has incurred liability for such payments and such payments were made;

- (b) any amount contributed to any fund, scheme or arrangement approved by the Commission or Authority for the purpose of providing for
  - (i) abandonment and decommissioning,
  - (ii) petroleum host communities development trust, or
  - (iii) environmental remediation; and
- (c) any other deduction as may be prescribed by the Minister by order published in the Official Gazette.
- (2) For the purpose of determining income tax, section 21 of this Act shall be read in conjunction with the provisions of this subsection as regards the followings —
  - (a) any expenditure for the purchase of information relating to the existence and extent of petroleum deposits, other than for the acquisition of geological, geophysical and geochemical data or information:
  - (b) any expenditure incurred as a penalty including natural gas flare fees or any such imposition relating to natural gas flare;
  - (c) production bonuses, signature bonuses paid for the acquisition of, or of rights in or over, petroleum deposits; signature bonuses or fees paid for renewing petroleum mining lease or petroleum prospecting licence or fees paid for assigning rights to another party including for marginal fields; and
  - (d) any tax inputted into a contract or an agreement on a net of tax basis and paid by a company on behalf of the vendor or contractor.

83. Basis period for income tax on petroleum operations

Any company involved in upstream petroleum operations shall apply the accounting periods established for hydrocarbon tax on an actual year basis for its income tax.

84. Additional income tax payable in certain circumstances

(1) Where, for any accounting period of a company, there is a sale of chargeable oil or chargeable gas between connected persons, or disposal of chargeable oil or chargeable gas between connected or unconnected persons, and the amount of the income tax chargeable for that period, calculated in accordance with the provisions of section 78 to 83, and chapter two of this Act, is less than the amount prescribed in subsection (2) of this section, the company shall be liable to pay an additional amount of chargeable tax for that period equal to the difference between those two amounts.

- (2) The amount referred to in subsection (1) of this section is, for any accounting period of a company, the amount which the chargeable tax for crude oil or gas for that period, calculated in accordance with this section and chapter two of this Act shall be, if the reference in section 78(2)(a) and (b) of this Act, to the proceeds of sale or disposal were a reference to the amount obtained by multiplying the number of barrels of that crude oil or gas determined at the measurement point by the fiscal oil price per barrel or fiscal gas price per MMBtu.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2) of this section, the relevant sum per barrel of crude oil, condensate or gas per MMBtu by a company is the fiscal oil price or fiscal gas price applicable to that crude oil or gas as may be established by the Commission.
- (4) The whole of any additional chargeable tax for crude oil or chargeable gas payable by a company under this section for any accounting period shall be paid concurrently with the final instalment of the chargeable tax payable for that period.
- (5) Where there is no fiscal oil price or fiscal gas price established for a crude oil stream or gas, the Commission shall establish fiscal oil price or fiscal gas price for such stream and the fiscal oil or gas price established shall bear a fair and reasonable relationship —
  - (a) to the established fiscal oil or gas price of Nigerian crude oil streams or gas of comparable quality and specific gravity; or
  - (b) where there are no such Nigerian crude oil streams or gas of comparable quality and specific gravity, it shall bear a fair and reasonable relationship to the official selling prices at main international trading centres for crude oil or gas of comparable quality and gravity, due regard being had in either case to freight differentials and other relevant factors.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision in this part, where crude oil or gas, which in relation to a particular company is its chargeable oil or gas, is sold or disposed by another company, the crude oil or gas shall for the purpose of this section be deemed to be sold or disposed by that particular company.

85. Non-Associated Gas greenfield developments in onshore and shallow water terrains

- (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Act or any other law, the provisions of this section shall apply to all Non-Associated Gas greenfield developments in onshore and shallow water terrains reaching first commercial gas production from the commencement of this Act to 1st January 2029
  - (a) where the hydrocarbon liquids do not exceed 30 barrels per million standard cubic feet, there shall be granted a gas production tax credit at the rate of US$1.00 per thousand cubic feet or 30% of the fiscal gas price, whichever is lower;
  - (b) where the hydrocarbon liquids exceed 30 barrels per million standard cubic feet but do not exceed 100 barrels per million standard cubic feet, there shall be granted a gas production tax credit at the rate of U$$0.50 per thousand cubic feet or 30% of the fiscal gas price, whichever is lower;
  - (c) where the hydrocarbon liquids exceed 100 barrels per million standard cubic feet, the incentives under subsections (a) and (b) of this section shall no longer apply;
  - (d) the gas tax credit granted by this section shall apply on Non-Associated Gas sales for 10 years only, beginning from the date of attaining first gas production; and
  - (e) at the expiration of the 10 years referred to in subsection (1)(c) of this section, gas production allowance shall be granted at the respective rates set out in subsection (1)(a) and (b) of this section, provided that gas production tax credit and gas production allowance shall not be granted in respect of gas production at the same period.
- (2) In the case of all other Non-Associated Gas Greenfield projects with first commercial gas production after 1st January 2029, gas production allowance shall be granted at US$0.50 per thousand cubic feet or 30% of the fiscal gas price, whichever is lower, provided that the hydrocarbon liquids do not exceed 100 barrels per million standard cubic feet.
- (3) The gas production tax credit that can be recouped in any year shall not exceed the tax payable on the field(s) for that year on that income, subject to the payment of any minimum tax where applicable.
- (4) Unrecouped tax credit in one year may be carried forward for a maximum of 3 years.
- (5) The fiscal gas price for calculating gas production tax credit and gas production allowance shall be the same price used for determining royalties.

- (6) The provisions of this section shall apply to oil mining leases and petroleum mining leases.
- (7) Where first gas production cannot be achieved due to force majeure, such as natural disasters or acts of terrorism, the timelines and obligations stipulated in subsection (1) of this section may be suspended, subject to approval by the Commission, until such time as the force majeure ceases to exist.
- (8) The Commission shall certify the applicable hydrocarbon liquid ratios for the purposes of ascertaining appropriate gas production tax credit or gas production tax allowance.
- (9) The incentives under this section shall not apply to any company that has claimed Associated Gas Framework Agreement incentives for the same Non-Associated Gas Greenfield project.

86. General application of this Part and other matters

- (1) This part and the provisions of the Petroleum Industry Act shall not apply to holders of an oil prospecting licence or oil mining lease who do not enter into a conversion contract until the termination or expiration of the respective oil prospecting licence or oil mining lease.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, the provisions of chapter two of this Act and paragraph 6 of the Seventh Schedule to the Petroleum Industry Act shall apply to licences and leases awarded to indigenous Nigerian companies on a sole risk basis under the Petroleum Act, on which the Government has successfully exercised its back-in rights prior to the effective date of the Petroleum Industry Act, but any renewal of an oil mining lease shall be based on the provisions of this part and the Petroleum Industry Act.
- (3) The fiscal provisions of this part are the base terms that are applicable, and the Commission may under section 74(2) of Petroleum Industry Act conduct a licensing round whereby the bid parameter is a higher royalty, profit oil share or other fiscal features in order to ensure that the Government receives the full market value for each block.

87. Fiscal stabilisation

- (1) Fiscal stabilisation clauses contained in a production sharing contract or other contracts entered into after the commencement of the Petroleum Industry Act shall not be applicable to the fiscal provisions listed in this part, regardless of whether the changes in fiscal provisions affect the contractor favourably or unfavourably, provided such changes in fiscal provision are being made in a manner that is not discriminatory to the petroleum industry or the contractor.
- (2) The respective fiscal provisions referred to in subsection (1) of this section are —

- (a) generally applicable taxes, such as income tax, development levy, Value Added Tax, Stamp Duties, and deduction of tax at source;
- (b) levies, taxes or payments to comply with modern principles in respect of environment, labour laws, health and safety; and
- (c) new taxes, levies or duties as may be prescribed by the Climate Change Act, or to implement Nigeria's commitments with respect to climate change under any international agreement.

88. Petroleum Royalty

- (1) All production of petroleum, including production tests shall be subject to royalties as provided in the Seventh Schedule to this Act.
- (2) The Service shall be the relevant tax authority for the administration of the royalty imposed under this part, and the Seventh Schedule to this Act.

PART II

PETROLEUM PROFITS TAX: IMPOSITION OF TAX AND ASCERTAINMENT OF CHARGEABLE PROFITS, ASCERTAINMENT OF ASSESSABLE TAX AND OF CHARGEABLE TAX ETC.

89. Charge of petroleum profits tax

- (1) This part shall apply to oil prospecting licences and oil mining leases that are yet to convert under the provisions of the Petroleum Industry Act.
- (2) Subject to part I of chapter three of this Act and subsection (1) of this section, there is levied upon the profits of each accounting period of a company engaged in petroleum operations during that period a tax to be charged, assessed and payable in accordance with the provisions of this part.

90. Ascertainment of profits, adjusted profit, assessable profits and chargeable profits

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this part, the revenue of a company in an accounting period shall be the aggregate of
  - (a) the proceeds of sale of all chargeable oil sold by the company in that period;
  - (b) the value of all chargeable oil disposed by the company in that period;
  - (c) all income of the company of that period incidental to and arising from any one or more of its petroleum operations; and
  - (d) gains arising from the disposal of assets accruing to the company in any accounting period, ascertained in accordance with the relevant provisions of part VIII of chapter two of this Act.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b) of this section, the value of any chargeable oil disposed shall be taken to be the value of that oil as determined, for the purpose of royalty, in accordance with the provisions of the Seventh Schedule to this Act and any applicable legislation.
- (3) The adjusted profit of an accounting period shall be the profits of that period after the deductions allowed under section 91(1) of this Act and any adjustment to be made in accordance with the provisions of sections 91(2) and 95 of this Act.
- (4) The assessable profit of an accounting period shall be the adjusted profit of that period after any deduction allowed under section 97 of this Act.
- (5) The chargeable profits of an accounting period shall be the assessable profits of that period after the deductions allowed under section 97 of this Act.

[Seventh Schedule]

91. Deductions allowed

- (1) In computing the adjusted profit of a company for an accounting period from its petroleum operations, there shall be deducted all outgoings and expenses wholly and exclusively incurred, during the period by the company for the purpose of its operations, as follows
  - rents incurred by the company for that period in respect of land or buildings occupied under an oil prospecting licence or an oil mining lease for disturbance of surface rights or for any other like disturbance;
  - (b) all non-productive rents incurred by the company during that period;
  - (c) all royalties incurred by the company during that period in respect of natural gas sold and actually delivered to the Nigerian National Petroleum Company Limited, or sold to any other buyer or customer or disposed in any other commercial manner;
  - (d) all royalties incurred by the company during the period in respect of crude oil or of casinghead petroleum spirit won in Nigeria;
  - (e) customs or excise duty or other like charges in respect of machineries, equipment and goods used in the company's petroleum operation incurred by the company to the Federal Government of Nigeria during the period;
  - (f) any expense incurred for repair of premises, plant machinery, or fixtures employed for the purpose of carrying on petroleum operations, or for the renewal, repair or alteration of any implement, utensils or articles

employed;

(g) interest incurred on money borrowed by such company where the Service is satisfied that the interest was payable on capital employed in carrying on its petroleum operations subject to the provisions of the Third Schedule to this Act and the Transfer Pricing Regulations;

[Third Schedule]

- (h) any expenditure being intangible drilling costs directly incurred in connection with drilling and appraisal of a development well;
- (i) any expenditure (tangible or intangible) directly incurred in connection with the drilling of an exploration well and the next two appraisal wells in the same field whether the wells are productive or not, provided that where a deduction is made under this section in respect of any such expenditure, that expenditure shall not be treated as qualifying drilling expenditure for the purposes of part III of the First Schedule to this Act;

[First Schedule]

- (j) any contributions to pension, provident or other society, scheme or fund, which may be approved, under the Pensions Reform Act, provided that the sum received by or the value of any benefit obtained by such company, from any approved pension, provident or other society, scheme or fund, in any accounting period of that company shall, for the purposes of subsection (1)(c) of section 90 of this Act, be treated as income of the company for that accounting period;
- (k) customs and excise duties, stamp duties, or any other rate, fee or other like charges, other than any tax on income, incurred by the company during the period to the Federal Government, a State or Local Government;
- (I) any amount contributed to a fund, scheme or arrangement approved by the Commission for the purpose of decommissioning and abandonment, subject to the production of the Statement of Account of the decommissioning and abandonment fund:
  - provided that the surplus or residue of the fund after decommissioning and abandonment of the field shall be subject to tax under this part:
- (m) debts directly incurred to the company and proved to the satisfaction of the Service to have become bad or doubtful in the accounting period for which the adjusted profits is being ascertained, notwithstanding that such bad or doubtful debts were due and payable prior to the commencement of that period, provided that —

- (i) the debt was included as a profit from petroleum operations in the accounting period in which they were incurred or advances made in the normal course of carrying on petroleum operations not being advances on account of any item under section 97 of this Act;
- (ii) the deduction to be made in respect of a doubtful debt shall not exceed that portion of the debt which is proved to have become doubtful during that accounting period, and shall not include any amount deducted under the provisions of this paragraph in determining the adjusted profit of a previous accounting period, and
- (iii) all sums recovered by the company during that accounting period on account of amounts previously deducted in respect of bad or doubtful debts shall be treated as income of the company for that period:
- (n) such other deductions as may be prescribed by any rule made under this part.
- (2) Liability waived, released or recovered shall be treated under this part in accordance with section 194 of this Act.

92. Incentives for utilisation of associated gas

- (1) The following incentives shall apply to a company engaged in the utilisation of associated gas
  - (a) investment required to separate crude oil and gas from the reservoir into usable products shall be considered as part of the oil field development;
  - (b) capital investment on facilities or equipment to deliver associated gas in usable form at utilisation or designated custody transfer points shall be treated for tax purposes, as part of the capital investment for oil development;
  - (c) capital allowances, operating expenses and basis of tax assessment shall be subject to the provisions of this part and the tax incentives under the revised memorandum of understanding.
- (2) The incentives specified under subsection (1) of this section shall be subject to the following conditions
  - (a) condensates extracted and re-injected into the crude oil stream shall be treated as oil, but those not re-injected shall be treated under existing tax arrangement;
  - (b) the company shall pay the minimum amount charged by the Minister of Petroleum Resources for any gas flared by the company;

- (c) the company shall, as far as practicable, keep the expenses incurred in the utilisation of associated gas separate from those incurred on crude oil operation and expenses that cannot be separated shall be allowable against the crude oil income of the company under this Act;
- (d) expenses identified as incurred exclusively in the utilisation of associated gas shall be regarded as gas expenses and be allowable against the gas income and profit to be taxed under chapter two of this Act;
- (e) companies which invest in natural gas liquid extraction facilities to supply gas in usable form to downstream projects, including aluminium smelter and methanol, Methyl Tertiary Butyl Ether and other associated gas utilisation projects shall benefit from the incentives;
- (f) all capital investments relating to the gas-to-liquids facilities shall be treated as chargeable capital allowance and recovered against the crude oil income; and
- (g) gas transferred from the natural gas liquid facility to the gas-to-liquid facilities shall be at zero per cent tax and zero per cent royalty.
- (3) Where a company has enjoyed any incentive under this section, the company shall not claim similar incentive under any law in Nigeria, including economic development tax incentive and gas pipeline investment incentive under section 80 of this Act.

93. Application of incentives to utilisation of non-associated gas

All incentives granted in respect of investments in associated gas shall be applicable to investments in non-associated gas.

94. Deductions not allowed

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this part, for the purposes of ascertaining the adjusted profit of any company for any accounting period from its petroleum operations, no deduction shall be allowed in respect of
  - (a) any capital withdrawn or any sum employed or intended to be employed as capital;
  - (b) any capital employed in improvements as distinct from repairs;
  - (c) any sum recoverable under an insurance or contract of indemnity;

- (d) rent of or cost of repairs to any premises or part of premises not incurred for the purposes of those operations;
- (e) any amount incurred in respect of any income tax, development levy, profits tax or other similar tax whether charged within Nigeria or elsewhere:
- (f) the depreciation of any premises, buildings, structures, works of a permanent nature, plant, equipment, machinery, furniture or fixtures;
- (g) any payment to any pensions, provident, savings widows' and orphans' or other society scheme or fund, except such payments as are allowed under subsection (1)(j) of section 91 of this Act;
- (h) customs duty on goods, including articles or any other thing, imported by the company
  - (i) for resale or for personal consumption of employees of the company, or
  - (ii) where goods of the same quality to those imported are produced in Nigeria and are available for sale to the public at a price lower or equivalent to the cost of the imported goods at the time the imported goods were ordered by the company;
- (i) any expenditure for the purchase of information relating to the existence and extent of petroleum deposits;
- (j) any qualifying expenditure for the purposes of part III of the First Schedule to this Act, and any expense or deduction in respect of a liability incurred which is deductible under any other provision of this Act;
- (k) any tax or penalty borne on behalf of another person; and
- (I) any expense on which Value Added Tax is due under this Act but not charged, or in the case of imported items, any expense on which the applicable import duty or levy was not paid.
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 91(1) of this Act, in computing the adjusted profit of any company of any accounting period, deduction shall not be allowed in respect of any sum incurred to a related party where the cost is not in accordance with the Transfer Pricing Regulations.

95. Exclusion of certain profits, etc.

Where a company engaged in petroleum operations is engaged in the transportation of chargeable oil by ocean going oil-tankers operated by or on behalf of the company from Nigeria to another territory, adjustments shall be made in computing an adjusted profit or a loss to exclude any profit or loss attributable to such transportation.

96. Assessable profits and losses

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, the assessable profits of a company for any accounting period shall be the amount of the adjusted profit of that period after the deduction of -
  - (a) the amount of any loss incurred by that company during any previous accounting period; and
  - (b) in a case of a business restructuring, the amount of any loss which is allowed for deduction by the new company under section 191 of this Act in its trade or business during its first accounting period.
- (2) The loss referred to in subsection (1) of this section shall be deducted to the extent possible from the amount of the adjusted profits of the accounting period immediately succeeding the accounting period in which the loss was incurred, and in subsequent accounting periods, until the loss is fully recouped.
- (3) Subject to the approval of the Service, a company may, within five months after the end of an accounting period, or such further time as the Service may permit, elect in writing, that a deduction to be made under this section, or part of the deduction, be deferred to succeeding accounting periods.

97. Chargeable profits and capital allowance

- (1) The chargeable profits of a company of any accounting period shall be the amount of the assessable profits of that period after the deduction of any amount to be allowed in accordance with the provisions of this section.
- (2) There shall be computed the aggregate amount of all allowances due to the company under the provisions of part III of the First Schedule to this Act for the accounting period.

[First Schedule]

- (3) In calculating the amount of the deduction to be allowed under this section for an accounting period, the limitation imposed by subsection (4) of this section shall be applied to ensure that the tax chargeable on the company for that period is not less than 15% of the tax chargeable for the period, where no deduction is made under this section.
- (4) The amount to be allowed as a deduction under this section shall be, the lower of  $\,$
  - (a) the aggregate amount computed under subsection (2) of this section;
  - (b) a sum equal to 85% of the assessable profits of the accounting period less 170% of the total amount of the deduction allowed as petroleum investment allowance computed under part III of the First Schedule to this Act for the period.

[First Schedule]

- (5) Where the total amount of the allowances computed under subsection (2) of this section cannot be deducted under subsection (1) of this section due to insufficiency of or no assessable profits for the accounting period or to the limitation imposed by subsection (4) of this section the total amount or the part thereof which has not been deducted, shall be —
  - (a) added to the aggregate amount to be computed under subsection(2) of this section for the succeeding accounting period of the company; and
  - (b) deemed to be an allowance due to the company, under the provisions of part III of the First Schedule to this Act for that succeeding accounting period.

[First Schedule]

(6) Where Value Added Tax is due under this Act but not charged on an asset, or in the case of an imported item, the applicable import duty or levy was not paid, the relevant expenditure shall not be eligible as a qualifying capital expenditure under the provisions of part III of First Schedule to this Act.

[First Schedule]

98. Assessable petroleum profits tax

- (1) The assessable tax for an accounting period of a company shall be an amount equal to 85% of its chargeable profits of that period.
- (2) Where a company has not commenced a sale or bulk disposal of chargeable oil under a programme of continuous production, its assessable tax for an accounting period during which it has not fully amortised all its pre-production capitalised expenditure, shall be 65.75% of the chargeable profits for that period,

provided that -

- (a) the period of the tax rate under this subsection shall not be more than 5 years, commencing from the first accounting period of the company, notwithstanding any other incentive as may be granted to the company; and
- (b) where a company is granted a licence or lease or acquires an interest in an oil and gas asset that has enjoyed the provision of this subsection, the company shall be subject to tax under the provision of subsection (1) of this section from its first accounting period.

99. Additional chargeable petroleum profits tax payable in certain circumstances

- (1) Where, for any accounting period of a company, there is a sale of chargeable oil between connected persons, or disposal of chargeable oil between connected or unconnected persons, and the amount of the chargeable tax for that period, calculated in accordance with the provisions of this part other than this section, is less than the amount prescribed in subsection (2) of this section, the company shall pay an additional amount of chargeable tax for that period, equal to the difference between those two amounts.
- (2) The amount referred to in subsection (1) of this section is, for any accounting period of a company, the amount which the chargeable tax for that period, calculated in accordance with the provisions of this part, shall be, if the reference in section 90(1)(a) and (b) of this Act to the proceeds of sale were a reference to the amount obtained by multiplying the number of barrels of that crude oil determined at the measurement point by the fiscal oil price per barrel.
- (3) For the purpose of this section, the total value of the chargeable oil for a company shall be the sum of the multiplications of volume and fiscal oil price as established by the Commission at the measurement point.
- (4) The whole of any additional chargeable tax for crude oil payable by a company under this section for any accounting period shall be payable concurrently with the final instalment of the chargeable tax payable for that period.
- (5) Where there is no fiscal oil price established for a crude oil stream, the Commission shall establish fiscal price for such stream and the fiscal oil price per barrel established shall bear a fair and reasonable relationship—
  - (a) to the established fiscal oil price of Nigerian crude oil streams of comparable quality and specific gravity; or
  - (b) where there are no such Nigerian crude oil streams of comparable quality and specific gravity, it shall bear a fair and reasonable relationship to the official selling prices at main international trading centres for crude oil of comparable quality and gravity,

due regard being had in either case to freight differentials and other relevant factors.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision in this part, where a particular company's chargeable oil is exported from Nigeria or sold locally by another company, that chargeable oil for the purpose of this part shall be deemed to be exported from Nigeria or sold by that particular company.

100. Partnerships, etc.

- (1) A person, other than a company, who engages in petroleum operations either on his own account or jointly with any other person or in partnership with any other person with a view to sharing the profits arising from those operations shall be guilty of an offence.
- (2) Where the person referred to in subsection (1) of this section has benefitted from any profits on upstream petroleum operations, the person shall be subject to tax under this part on the profits and shall pay a penalty provided under the Nigeria Tax Administration Act.
- (3) Where two or more companies are engaged in petroleum operations either in partnership, in a joint venture or in concert under any scheme or arrangement, the Service may make regulations for the ascertainment of the tax to be charged and assessed upon each company so engaged.
- (4) Such regulations may
  - (a) modify the provisions of this part in such manner as the Service may deem fit:
  - (b) provide for the apportionment of any profits, outgoings, expenses, liabilities, deductions, qualifying expenditure and the tax chargeable on each company;
  - (c) provide for the computation of any tax as if the partnership, joint venture, scheme or arrangement were carried on by one company and apportion that tax between the companies concerned:
  - (d) accept other basis of ascertaining the tax chargeable on each of the companies, which may be put forward by those companies; or
  - (e) contain provisions which have regard to any circumstance whereby such operations are partly carried on for the companies by an operating company whose expenses are reimbursed by those companies.
- (5) Regulations made under this section may be of general application for the purposes of this section and this part or of particular application to a specified partnership, joint venture, scheme or arrangement.
- (6) The regulations made under this section shall not impose a greater burden of tax on any company engaged in any partnership, joint venture, scheme or arrangement than would have been imposed on that company under this part if all things enjoyed, done or suffered by such company had been enjoyed, done or suffered by the company in the proportion in which it enjoys, does or suffers those things under that partnership, joint venture, scheme or arrangement.

PART III

DEEP OFFSHORE AND INLAND BASIN PRODUCTION SHARING CONTRACTS

101. Production sharing contracts

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act or any other law, the provisions of this part shall apply to deep offshore and inland basin production sharing contracts that are yet to convert under the provisions of the Petroleum Industry Act or have been renegotiated in accordance with the provisions of the Petroleum Industry Act.

102. Duration of oil prospecting licence

The duration of an oil prospecting licence relating to production sharing contracts in the deep offshore and inland basin shall be determined by the Minister charged with responsibility for matters relating to petroleum and shall be for a minimum period of five years and not exceeding ten years.

103. Determination of petroleum profits tax

- (1) The petroleum profits tax payable under a production sharing contract shall be determined in accordance with part II of chapter three of this Act, provided that the petroleum profits tax rate applicable to the contract area as defined in the production sharing contracts shall be 50% of chargeable profits for the duration of the production sharing contracts.
- (2) Nothing contained in this part shall be construed as having exempted any holder or contractor from the payment of any other tax, duty or levy imposed by any Federal, State or Local Government, or Area Council Authority.

104. Determination of investment tax allowance

Where a holder and a contractor have incurred any qualifying capital expenditure wholly and exclusively for the purposes of petroleum operations carried out under the terms of a production sharing contract in the deep offshore or inland basin, the parties shall be entitled to investment tax allowance at a rate of 50% of the qualifying expenditure in accordance with the provisions of existing applicable legislation for the accounting period in which that asset was first used for the purposes of such operations.

105. Royalty payable in respect of deep offshore production sharing contracts

Royalty shall be determined and payable in accordance with the provisions of the Seventh Schedule to this Act.

[Seventh Schedule]

106. Computation of petroleum profits tax

Computation of estimated and final petroleum profit tax shall be made in the US dollars on the basis of the US dollar returns filed.

107. Allocation of royalty oil

Royalty oil shall be allocated to the Commission or the holder, in such quantum as shall generate an amount equal to actual royalty payable during each month and the concession rental payable annually in accordance with the production sharing contract terms.

108. Allocation of cost oil

- (1) Cost oil shall be allocated to the contractor in such quantum as shall generate an amount sufficient for the recovery of operating costs in oil prospecting licences as defined in the production sharing contract and any oil mining leases derived therefrom.
- (2) All operating costs shall be recovered in U.S. dollars through cost oil allocations in accordance with the terms of the production sharing contract.

109. Allocation of tax oil

Tax oil shall be allocated to the Commission or the holder, in such quantum as shall generate an amount equal to the actual petroleum profit tax liability payable during each month.

110. Allocation of profit oil

Profit oil, being the balance of available crude oil after deducting royalty oil, tax oil and cost oil, shall be allocated to each party in accordance with the terms of the production sharing contract.

111. Payment of royalty

- (1) The holder shall pay all royalty, concession rentals and petroleum profits tax on behalf of itself and the contractor out of the allocated royalty oil and tax oil
- (2) The Service shall issue separate tax receipts in the names of the holder and the contractor for the respective amounts of petroleum profit tax paid on behalf of the holder and contractor in accordance with the terms of the production sharing contract.

112. Chargeable tax on petroleum operations

The chargeable tax on petroleum operations in the contract area under the production sharing contracts shall be split between the holder and the contractor in the same ratio as the split of profit oil as defined in the production sharing contract between them.

113. Use of realisable price in determining royalty and petroleum profits tax in respect of crude oil, etc.

(1) The realisable price as defined in the production sharing contract established by the holder in accordance with the provisions of the production sharing contract, shall be used to determine the amount payable on royalty and petroleum profits tax in respect of crude oil produced and lifted pursuant to the production sharing contract.

(2) The parameters for new crude oil streams produced from the contract area shall also be determined in accordance with the provisions of the production sharing contract.

114. Submission of receipts

The holder shall make available to the contractor copies of the receipts issued by the Service bearing the names of each party as defined in the production sharing contract in accordance with each party's tax oil allocation for the payment of petroleum profits tax under the provisions of the production sharing contract.

115. Adaptation of laws

The relevant provisions of all existing laws, including the Petroleum Act, and part II of chapter three of this Act shall be read with such modifications as to bring them into conformity with the provisions of this part.

116. Review of the production sharing contract

The Minister charged with responsibility for matters relating to petroleum shall cause the Commission to call for a review of production sharing contracts every eight years.

PART IV

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

117. Administration of royalties

The Service shall administer royalties payable under this Act in accordance with the provisions of the Nigeria Tax Administration Act.

118. Interpretation

In this Chapter —

"accounting date" means the date on which a company usually prepares its accounting statement;

"accounting period" in relation to a company engaged in upstream petroleum operations, means —

- (a) a period of one year commencing on 1st January and ending on 31st December of the same year;
- (b) any shorter period commencing on the day the company first makes a sale or bulk disposal of chargeable oil, domestic, export or both, and ending on 31st December of the same year; or

(c) any period of less than a year being a period commencing on 1st January of any year and ending on the date in the same year when the company ceases to engage in petroleum operations; and in the event of any dispute with respect to the date of the first sale of chargeable oil above or with respect to the date on which the company ceases to engage in petroleum operations, the Commission or the Minister in charge of Petroleum Resources shall determine the same and no appeal shall lie;

"adjusted profits" means adjusted profit as stated in sections 67 and 90 of this Act;

"aggregate gas price" means the gas price determined under section 167(4) of Petroleum Industry Act;

"appraisal well" means a well that, in the opinion of the Commission, is aimed at determining the size, distribution, characteristics and commerciality of a petroleum discovery;

"assessable profit" means assessable profit as stated in sections 67 and 90 of this Act;

"assessable tax" for the purposes of petroleum profits tax means assessable tax ascertained under section 90 of this Act;

"associated gas" means —

- (a) natural gas, commonly known as gas-cap gas, which overlies and is in contact with crude oil in a reservoir; and
- (b) solution gas dissolved in crude oil in a reservoir and emerging from the fluid as pressure drops;

"Authority" means the Nigerian Midstream and Downstream Petroleum Regulatory Authority" established under the Petroleum Industry Act;

"barrel" means a barrel of 42 United States gallons;

"chargeable oil" means crude oil, condensate or natural gas liquids produced upstream of the measurement point as provided under section 65(1)(a) of this Act;

"chargeable profit" means chargeable profit as stated in section 67 and 90 of this

"chargeable volume" in relation to a company engaged in upstream petroleum operations means the chargeable volume as set out in paragraph 2 of the Seventh Schedule to the Petroleum Industry Act;

"Commission" means the Nigerian Upstream Petroleum Regulatory Commission established under the Petroleum Industry Act;

"company" means any company or corporation, including Limited Liability Partnership, established by or under any law in force in Nigeria or elsewhere;

"condensate" means a portion of natural gas of such composition that are in the gaseous phase at temperature and pressure of the reservoirs, but that, when produced, are in the liquid phase at surface pressure and temperature;

"contractor" means any petroleum exploration and production company which has entered into a production sharing contract agreement or arrangement with the holder of an oil prospecting licence or an oil mining lease within the Deep Offshore and Inland Basin;

"crude oil" means for the purposes of —

- (a) part I of chapter three of this Act, petroleum, which is in liquid conditions upon production from a reservoir either in its natural state or after the extraction of water, sand or other foreign substance from it, but before any such oil has been refined or otherwise treated, other than oil extracted by destructive distillation from coal, bituminous shales or other stratified deposits;
- (b) part II of chapter three of this Act, any oil, other than oil extracted by destructive distillation from coal, bituminous shales or other stratified deposits, won in Nigeria either in its natural state or after the extraction of water, sand or other foreign substance therefrom but before any such oil has been refined or otherwise treated;

"decommissioning and abandonment" means the approved process of cessation of operations of crude oil and natural gas wells, installations, plants and structures, including shutting down an installation's operations and production, total or partial removal of installations and structures where applicable, chemicals and all such other materials handling, removal and disposal of debris and removed items, environmental restoration of the area after removal of installations, plants and structures, and 'decommission' has a corresponding meaning;

"deep offshore" means any area within the territorial waters, continental shelf or exclusive economic zone offshore of Nigeria having a water depth in excess of 200 metres:

"disposal" and "disposed of" in relation to chargeable oil or gas owned by a company engaged in petroleum operations, means —

(a) delivery or export, without sale, of chargeable oil or gas to an affiliate or other company, and

(b) chargeable oil or gas delivered or transferred, without sale, to facilities used for midstream operations;

"downstream gas operations" means all activities entered into for the purpose of, distribution and supply of natural gas to retail customers, city gate reception terminals for natural gas, stations for the distribution, marketing and retailing of natural gas;

"downstream petroleum operations" means downstream gas operations and downstream petroleum products operations;

"downstream petroleum products operations" means all activities entered into for the purpose of distribution and supply of petroleum products to retail customers, tank farms for distribution of petroleum products, and stations for the distribution, marketing and retailing of petroleum products;

"exploration well" means a well that in the opinion of the Commission is aimed at discovering petroleum in a separate field in which petroleum has not been previously discovered;

"Federation Account" means the Federation Account as specified in the Constitution of the Federal Republic of Nigeria;

"field" includes an area consisting of a single reservoir or multiple reservoirs all grouped on, or related to, the same geological structural feature, stratigraphic condition, a combination of both and refers to the underground productive formations or their vertical projection to the surface;

"fiscal gas price" means the price established in paragraph 8(3) of the Seventh Schedule to the Petroleum Industry Act;

"fiscal oil price" means the price established in paragraphs 8(1) and (2) of the Seventh Schedule of the Petroleum Industry Act;

"frontier acreages" means any or all acreages in an area on land in Nigeria defined as a frontier in a regulation issued by the Commission:

"frontier basin" means basins where hydrocarbon exploration activities have not been carried out or previous commercial discovery oil and gas have not been made or an area that is undeveloped and includes Anambra, Dahomey, Bida, Sokoto, Chad and Benue trough or as may be declared by the Commission through a regulations;

"Government" means the Federal Government of Nigeria;

"Greenfield Non-Associated Gas Development" means all existing undeveloped non-associated gas rights and future non-associated gas rights granted pursuant to the licensing bid rounds conducted by the Commission;

"holder" means any Nigerian company who holds an oil prospecting licence or oil mining lease situated within the deep offshore and inland basin under the relevant provision of the Petroleum Act;

"host communities" means communities situated in or appurtenant to the area of operation of a settlor, and any other community as a settlor may determine under Chapter 3 of the Petroleum Industry Act;

"host communities development trust" has the meaning given to it in section 235(1) of Petroleum Industry Act;

"Inland Basin" means any of the following Basins namely, Anambra, Benin, Benue, Chad, Gongola, Sokoto and such other basins as may be determined, from time to time, by the Minister charged with responsibility for matters relating to petroleum;

"intangible drilling costs" for the purposes of petroleum profits tax means all expenditure for labour, fuel, repairs, maintenance, hauling, and supplies and materials, not being supplies and materials for well cement. casing or other well fixtures, which are for or incidental to drilling, cleaning, deepening or completing wells or the preparation thereof incurred in respect of —

- (a) determination of well locations geological studies and topographical and geographical surveys preparatory to drilling;
- (b) drilling, shooting, testing and cleaning wells;
- (c) cleaning, draining and levelling land, road building and the laying of foundations; and
- (d) erection of rigs and tankage assembly and installation of pipelines and other plant and equipment required in the preparation or drilling of wells producing petroleum;

"large-scale gas utilisation industries" means —

- (a) large-scale industries that use natural gas as a feedstock such as gasto-liquid plants, petrochemical industries and fertiliser plants; and
- (b) mini-LNG plants, power plants and such other industries as defined in regulations;

"lease" means a petroleum mining lease;

"lessee" means a holder of a lease;

"licence" means a licence issued by the Commission or Authority in respect of any applicable upstream, midstream or downstream petroleum operations;

"licensee" means a holder of a licence;

"liquefied natural gas" for the purposes of petroleum profits tax means natural gas in its liquid state at approximately atmospheric pressure;

"loss" means a loss ascertained in like manner as an adjusted profit;

"marginal field" means a field or discovery which has been declared a marginal field prior to 1st January 2021;

"marketable natural gas" means natural gas which meets specifications determined by the Authority for distribution to wholesale customers and retail customers —

- (a) for use as a domestic, commercial and industrial fuel; and
- (b) as feedstock or industrial raw material;

"measurement point" means —

- (a) a point determined in the field development plan under section 79(2) of Petroleum Industry Act, where petroleum is being measured and its value is determined for royalty purposes;
- (b) where the point has not been determined, a point directly downstream of the flow station in the petroleum mining lease; and
- (c) where measurements take place outside the petroleum mining lease, a deemed measurement point in the petroleum mining lease based on a calculation procedure approved by the Commission adjusting from the points where petroleum is being measured;

CHAPTER FOUR

RELIEF FOR DOUBLE TAXATION

119. Unilateral relief of double taxation

(1) Where, in any year of assessment, any part of the income or profit of a resident of Nigeria, derived from outside Nigeria, has been charged to tax in the source country, and that income or profit is also chargeable to tax in Nigeria, the tax paid outside Nigeria may be allowed as a credit against the tax payable in Nigeria, provided that the income or profit is brought into Nigeria through Government approved channels.

- (2) The credit to be allowed in subsection (1) of this section shall be the lower of the —
  - (a) Nigerian tax, other than taxes under chapter three of this Act, attributable to the foreign income or profit; and
  - (b) amount of tax paid in the source country.
- (3) The Nigerian tax under subsection (2)(a) of this section attributable to the foreign income or profit shall be the proportion of the foreign income to total income, multiplied by the Nigerian tax.

120. Double taxation agreement

(1) Where the Government of the Federal Republic of Nigeria enters into an agreement with a treaty partner for the purpose of providing relief from double taxation in relation to tax imposed under this Act, the agreement

- shall have effect upon ratification or domestication by the National Assembly.
- (2) Relief from double taxation shall be in respect of income tax paid under the laws of a treaty partner against income taxes imposed under this Act.
- (3) Where an agreement has taken effect, any obligation as to secrecy in the Nigeria Tax Administration Act or any other law in Nigeria shall not prevent the disclosure of any information required to be disclosed under the agreement to an authorised officer of a treaty partner.
- (4) The Minister may make rules for implementing the provisions of any agreement under this section.
- (5) For the purposes of providing relief in Nigeria from double taxation, all extant double taxation agreements are deemed to have been made under the provisions of this section and shall apply throughout Nigeria with effect from 1st January of the year immediately following the date the agreement entered into force.
- (6) The agreement in subsection (1) of this section shall be for the purpose of elimination of double taxation, without creating opportunities for nontaxation or reduced taxation through tax evasion, avoidance or other forms of abuse, including treaty-shopping arrangements aimed at obtaining reliefs provided in the agreement for the indirect benefit of residents of any other country or territory that is not part of the agreement.
- (7) For the purposes of the agreement referred to in subsection (1) of this section, a non-resident may benefit under the agreement where the person is a resident of the relevant treaty partner and the beneficial owner of the income for which the benefit is being claimed.
- (8) Nothing in this section shall be construed to allow a relief in respect of an additional tax paid for the relevant tax year under this Act or the domestic legislation of a treaty partner in conformity with the global minimum tax rules as it relates to a permanent establishment situated in the treaty partner.

121. Method of calculating relief to be allowed for double taxation

- (1) Relief from double taxation under an agreement referred to in section 120 of this Act shall be granted in accordance with the provisions of this section and relevant provisions of the Nigeria Tax Administration Act.
- (2) The foreign tax paid to a treaty partner in accordance with the agreement, and in respect of income or profits chargeable to income tax in Nigeria may be allowed as a credit against tax payable under this Act.

- (3) The Nigerian tax payable in respect of the income or profit which has been charged to tax by a treaty partner shall be reduced by the amount of the credit admissible under the terms of the agreement, provided that credit shall not be allowed to a person who was not a resident of Nigeria during the relevant year of assessment.
- (4) Without prejudice to the provisions of subsection (3) of this section, the credit to be allowed in subsection (2) of this section shall be the lower of the
  - (a) Nigerian tax attributable to the foreign income or profits; and
  - (b) the amount of tax paid to the treaty partner.
- (5) The Nigerian tax under subsection (4)(a) of this section attributable to the foreign income or profits shall be the proportion of the foreign income to total income, multiplied by the Nigerian tax.
- (6) In computing the amount of chargeable income or assessable profits, the following shall apply —
  - (a) deduction shall not be allowed in respect of a foreign tax, whether in respect of the same or any other profits; and
  - (b) where profits or income chargeable depends on the amount received in Nigeria, the amount shall be increased by the appropriate amount of the foreign tax in respect of the profits.
  - (7) Any claim for credit shall be made not later than two years after the end of the year of assessment, and in the event of any dispute as to the amount allowable, the claim shall be subject to objection and appeal in like manner as an assessment.
  - (8) Where the amount of any credit given under the agreement is rendered excessive or insufficient by reason of any adjustment of the amount of any tax payable in Nigeria or elsewhere, nothing in this Act or the Nigerian tax Administration Act limiting the time for the making of assessments or claims for relief shall apply to any assessment or claim to which the adjustment gives rise.
  - (9) Notwithstanding subsection (8) of this section, the assessment or claim shall be made not later than two years from the time when such assessments, adjustments and other determinations have been made, whether in Nigeria or elsewhere, as are material in determining whether any of credit is due.
- (10) Where, in accordance with any provision of the agreement, income derived by a resident of Nigeria is exempt from tax under this Act, the exempt income shall be taken into account in determining the rate of tax applicable on the remaining income of such resident.

"trade or business" under this part, means trade or business or that part of a trade or business, the profits of which are assessable under this Act.

2. Application of capital allowance to assets acquired under hirepurchase or finance lease agreement, etc.

This part shall apply in relation to any asset acquired by any hirer or lessee under a hire-purchase or finance lease agreement subject to the following modifications

- (a) the qualifying capital expenditure in any basis period shall, in relation to any asset so acquired under that agreement, be limited to the amount of the instalments paid by the hirer or lessee up to that basis period, excluding any interest paid under the agreement;
- (b) the "owner" of the asset shall be construed to be the hirer or lessee under the hire-purchase or finance lease agreement; and
- (c) the person letting the asset to the hirer or lessee under the agreement shall not be entitled to an allowance under sections 27 and 28 of this Act.

3. Provisions relating to mining expenditure

Under this part, qualifying mining expenditure in respect of mining operation is the amount incurred for the purchase of information relating to the existence and extent of mineral deposits, searching for or discovering and testing deposits, or winning access in a relevant basis period notwithstanding that the expenditure has not brought into existence an asset, provided that the mining operations consist of the working of a mine.

4. Relevant interest

- (1) Under this part, where an asset consists of a building, structure or works, the owner shall be taken to be the owner of the relevant interest in the building, structure or works.
- (2) The expression "relevant interest" under this part means, in relation to an expenditure incurred on the construction of a building, structure or works, the interest in that building, structure or works which the person who incurred the expenditure was entitled.
- (3) Where qualifying building or mining expenditure on the construction of a building, structure or works has been incurred, the owner is entitled to two or more interests therein, and one of those interests is an interest which is reversionary on all the others, that interest shall be the relevant interest for the purposes of this part.

5. Qualifying building expenditure

Under this Schedule, "qualifying building expenditure" means expenditure incurred on the construction of buildings, structures or works of a permanent nature, in regular use for the purpose of trade or business and includes a building, structure or works used —

- (a) as a mill, factory, warehouse, workshop, or other similar building;
- (b) as a structure used in connection with any such buildings;
- (c) as a housing estate;
- (d) as a dock, port, wharf, pier, jetty or other similar building structure;
- (e) for the operation of a railway, or for the supply of water or electricity; and
- (f) for the running of a plantation or for the working of a mine or other source of mineral deposits of a wasting nature;

6. Capital Allowance

Where in a basis period for a year of assessment, a person has incurred qualifying expenditure wholly and exclusively for the purposes of its trade or business, there shall be made to the person for each year of assessment in the basis period for which that asset was used for the purposes of that trade or business, an allowance (capital allowance) at the rate specified in Table I of this part, provided that —

- (a) there shall be recorded in the capital allowance computation schedule for statistical purposes 1% of qualifying capital expenditure until the asset is disposed which being a notional amount, shall not increase or reduce the amount of capital allowance claimable; and
- (b) where the basis period for any year of assessment is a period of less than one year, the allowance for that year of assessment shall be granted proportionately.

[Table I.]

7. Asset to be in use at end of basis period

A capital allowance in respect of qualifying expenditure incurred in respect of an asset shall be made to a person for a year of assessment if at the end of a basis period, the person —

- (a) is the owner of the asset; and
- (b) used the asset for the purposes of its trade or business.

8. Residue

(1) The residue of a qualifying expenditure, in respect of an asset, at any date, is the total qualifying expenditure incurred on or before the date, in respect

- of that asset, less the total of capital allowance made, in respect of that asset, before that date.
- (2) For the purpose of this paragraph, capital allowance shall only be made for an asset that is in use for the purpose of the trade or business at the end of the basis period of the year of assessment.

9. Disposal of qualifying capital expenditure"

Under this part —

- (a) a building, structure or works of a permanent nature is disposed where the  $-\!\!\!\!-$
  - (i) relevant interest therein is sold,
  - (ii) interest, being an interest depending on the duration of a concession comes to an end, on the coming to an end of that concession,
  - (iii) leasehold interest terminates without the person who holds it acquiring the reversionary interest, which is the right of the owner of the underlying title to possess the land when the leasehold scheme expires, or
  - (iv) building, structure or works of a permanent nature is demolished or destroyed or without being demolished or destroyed, ceases to be used for the purposes of a trade or business carried on by the owner;
- (b) plant, machinery or fixture is disposed, if it is sold, discarded or ceases to be used for the purposes of a trade or business carried on by the owner; and
- (c) an asset in respect of which qualifying mining expenditure is incurred is disposed, if it is sold or ceases to be used for the purposes of the mining operation of the person.

10. Value of an asset

- (1) The value of an asset at the date of its disposal shall be the proceeds of the sale of the asset or the relevant interest, or if it was disposed without being sold, the amount which, in the opinion of the relevant tax authority, the asset or the relevant interest may realise in the open market at that date.
- (2) For the purpose of this paragraph, where an asset is disposed in such circumstances that insurance or compensation monies are received by the owner, the asset or the relevant interest, shall be treated as having been sold, and as if the net proceeds of the insurance or compensation monies were the net proceeds of the sale.
- (3) Subparagraph (2) of this paragraph shall not apply where the compensation monies received by the owner is used for the replacement of the asset lost or destroyed, and the allowances to be granted under this Schedule, in respect of the new asset, shall where the compensation received together with the residual or scrap value of the old asset, where applicable, is —

- (a) greater than the cost of the new asset acquired, be limited to the residue of the old asset; and
- (b) lower than the cost of the new asset, be
  - the amount claimable in respect of the residue of the old asset, and
  - (ii) full allowance in respect of the additional asset acquired, being the amount with which the cost of that new asset acquired exceeds the compensation together with the residual or scrap value.
- (4) Where the relevant interest in an asset is disposed not by way of bargain made at arm's length or where the sale is between connected persons, the value of the asset shall be determined by reference to the arm's length price of the asset.

11. Apportionment

- (1) Where a qualifying asset is disposed, sold, or purchased together with a non-qualifying asset, the proportion of the value of the asset, on a just apportionment, attributable to the qualifying asset shall, for the purposes of this part, be the value of or the price paid for the asset.
- (2) For the purposes of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, assets purchased or disposed in one bargain shall be deemed to be purchased or disposed together, notwithstanding that separate prices are or purport to be agreed for each of the assets, or that there are or purport to be separate purchases or disposals of the assets.
- (3) The provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall apply, with any necessary modifications, to the sale or purchase of the relevant interest in an asset together with any other asset or relevant interest in any other asset.

12. Reference to asset to include part of an asset

Any reference in this part to an asset shall be construed, whenever necessary, to include reference to a part of an asset or an undivided part of the asset in the case of joint interests, and when so construed, any necessary apportionment shall be made as may, in the opinion of the relevant tax authority, be just and reasonable.

13. Extension of application of "in use"

- (1) For the purpose of this part, an asset shall be deemed to be in use during a period of temporary disuse.
- (2) For the purpose of paragraph 6 and 7 of this part where an asset acquired for the purposes of a trade or business has not been used for the trade or business carried on by the owner, the asset shall be deemed to be in use, for the purposes of that trade or business on the date on which the expenditure was incurred, provided that where an allowance has been made in consequence of this subparagraph and the first use to which the asset is put is not for the trade or business, additional assessments shall be made to counteract the benefit obtained from the giving of the allowance.

(3) The approval of the relevant tax authority shall be obtained for the purpose of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

14. Exclusion of certain expenditure

Under this part, the following shall not be treated as qualifying expenditure —

- (a) expenditure allowed for deduction under section 20 of this Act; and
- (b) excess amount incurred on assets acquired in foreign currency and paid for with foreign currency obtained from the unofficial foreign exchange market at a rate above the prevailing official market rate on the date of the acquisition.

15. Application to leases

- (1) Where in a basis period, the owner of an asset leases the asset to another person under an operating lease, the provisions of this part shall apply, as though such expenditure were incurred for the purpose of a trade or business carried on by the owner or lessor.
- (2) Where an asset is acquired for use by a hirer or lessee under a hire purchase or finance lease contract for the purpose of a trade or business carried on by such hirer or lessee, the hirer or lessee shall be deemed to be the owner of the asset and the provisions of this part shall apply to the hirer or lessee, to the exclusion of the hiree or lessor under the contract.
- (3) For the purposes of this paragraph in relation to the trade or business, the basis period for any year of assessment shall be taken to be the year immediately preceding that year of assessment.

Asset used or expenditure incurred partly for the purposes of a trade or business.

- (1) Where the owner of an asset partly uses the asset for a trade or business, the allowance computed in accordance with the provisions of this part, shall, as may be reasonable, be apportioned to the trade or business.
- (2) Where the relevant tax authority is of the opinion that the basis of apportionment is not just and reasonable, having regard to all the circumstances and to the provisions of this part of this Schedule, the relevant tax authority shall make necessary adjustments as may be deemed fit.

17. Disposal without change of ownership

Where an asset in respect of which qualifying expenditure has been incurred is disposed in such circumstances that the owner retains ownership, for the purposes of determining the amount of capital allowance, the owner shall be deemed to have bought the asset immediately after the disposal for a price equal to the residue of the qualifying expenditure at the date of the disposal.

18. Application of this schedule to professions and vocations

In this part of this Schedule, references to a trade or business include references to a profession or vocation.

19. Partnerships

- (1) Where a trade or business is carried on by persons in a partnership, the trade or business of the partnership is treated as a single enterprise and any allowance that applies to the individual partners are computed as if the single enterprise conducted all the trade or business activities performed by the individual partners involved in that trade or business during the period.
- (2) Where a partner joins or leaves the partnership during a basis period, it shall be treated as if the business ceased at that time and recommenced immediately thereafter, and the provisions of paragraph (17) of this part shall apply in respect of the assets transferred to the new business.
- (3) Capital allowances related to assets shall be apportioned among the partners in their profit-sharing ratio at the end of the basis period.
- (4) Where capital allowance is required to be recomputed as a result of the application of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, all such additional assessments or repayments of tax shall be made as may be necessary to give effect to the provisions of this paragraph.
- (5) Where the application of this paragraph is inconsistent with any of the provisions of the other paragraphs of this part, the provisions shall apply with such modifications as the relevant tax authority may consider necessary and prescribe rules embodying those modifications.

20. Allowance made

Any reference in this part to an allowance made includes a reference to an allowance which would have been made but for an insufficiency of assessable profit or income against which to make it.

21. Claims for allowance

- (1) An allowance shall not be made to a person for a year of assessment unless it is claimed by the person for that year or where the relevant tax authority is of the opinion that it would be just to the taxpayer and reasonable to do so.
- (2) Where an allowance is not claimed in the year of assessment in the basis period for which that asset was used for the purposes of that trade or business, it shall be carried forward to subsequent period(s).

22. Manner of making allowance

(1) An allowance to be made to a person under the provisions of this part shall be subtracted from the remainder of the assessable profits or income for the relevant year of assessment.

- (2) For the purpose of this paragraph, the remainder of the assessable profits or income of a person for a year of assessment shall be determined by giving full effect to the provisions of section 27 of this Act in the case of a company, and section 28 of this Act in the case of an individual, as it relates to the deduction of a loss.
- (3) Where a deduction under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph cannot be fully made for a year of assessment due to no remainder or insufficient remainder of assessable profit or income, the deduction, or the part not yet made, shall be treated as a deduction for the next year, and for succeeding years until fully utilised.

- (1) Where a capital allowance has been granted in respect of an asset before the commencement of this Act, the remaining basis periods in which allowance may be made under this part, shall be the number of years of assessment for which allowance is to be made under this part less the number of years of assessment for which allowance has previously been made.
- (2) Where capital allowances were granted, in respect of an asset before the commencement of this Act, for years of assessment equal to or greater than the number of years allowable under this Act, a single allowance shall be granted for the residue upon the commencement of this Act provided that there shall be recorded in the capital allowance computation schedule for statistical purposes, 1% of the qualifying capital expenditure until the asset is disposed which being a notional amount shall not increase or reduce the amount of capital allowance claimable under this Act.

(3) In respect of qualifying capital expenditure on which capital allowance has been fully granted before the coming into effect of this Act, capital allowance shall not be granted under this Act on the amount required to be retained in the books under the repealed enactment.

PART II

CAPITAL ALLOWANCE FOR UPSTREAM PETROLEUM OPERATIONS UNDER THE PETROLEUM INDUSTRY ACT

1. Interpretation

- (1) For the purpose of this part
  - (a) "concession" includes a petroleum exploration licence, petroleum prospecting licence, petroleum mining lease, any right, title or interest in or to petroleum in the ground and any option of acquiring any such right, title or interest;
  - (b) "lease" includes an agreement for a lease where the term to be covered by the lease has begun, any tenancy and any agreement for the letting or hiring out of an asset, but does not include a mortgage, and all cognate expressions, including "Leasehold Interest", shall be construed accordingly and where —
    - (i) with the consent of the lessor, a lessee of any asset remains in possession after the termination of the lease without a new lease being granted, that lease shall be deemed for the purpose of this part to continue so long as the lessee remains in possession, and
    - (ii) on the termination of a lease of any asset, a new lease of that asset is granted to the lessee, the provisions of this part shall have effect as if the second lease were a continuation of the first lease;
  - (c) "qualifying expenditure" means, expenditure incurred for the purpose of hydrocarbon tax in an accounting period, which is capital expenditure, referred to as
    - (i) "qualifying plant expenditure" incurred on plant, machinery and fixtures directly for upstream petroleum operations applicable to crude oil for petroleum mining leases or petroleum prospecting licences,
    - (ii) "qualifying pipeline and storage expenditure" including floating production systems incurred directly or gathering pipelines for upstream petroleum operations applicable to crude oil for petroleum mining leases or petroleum prospecting licences,
    - (iii) "qualifying building expenditure" other than expenditure, which is included in subparagraph (c)(i), (ii) or (iv) of this paragraph, incurred directly on the construction of buildings, structures or works of a permanent nature for upstream petroleum operations applicable to crude oil for petroleum mining leases or petroleum prospecting licences, or

(iv) "qualifying drilling expenditure", tangible and intangible, other than expenditure which is included in subparagraph (1)(c)(i) or (ii) of this paragraph, incurred directly in connection with upstream petroleum operations for petroleum mining leases or petroleum prospecting licences, in view of searching for or discovering and testing petroleum deposits, or winning access, or the construction of any works or buildings which are likely to be of little or no value when the upstream petroleum operations for which they were constructed ceased, provided that qualifying expenditure shall not include any sum which may be deducted under section 68 of this Act or have benefited from capital allowance under any other provisions of this Act or prior to the acquisition of the asset by another entity;

(2) Where the asset referred to in subparagraph (d) has been disposed by the company before the beginning of its first accounting period, any loss incurred by the company on the disposal of such asset shall not be allowed on commencement of its accounting period and any profit realised by the company on such disposal shall be liable to income tax in its first accounting period.

2. Provisions relating to pre-production expenditure

For the purpose of this part, where —

- (a) expenditure has been incurred before the first accounting period and the expenditure would have been treated as a qualifying expenditure in any of the classes of qualifying expenditures stated in subparagraph (1)(c), then it shall be so classified; and
- (b) the expenditure before the first accounting date ought to have been treated as allowable deduction in an accounting period, it shall be allowed but fully amortised over a period of five years.

3. Relevant interest

- (1) Under this part, where an asset consists of a building, structure or works, the owner shall be taken to be the owner of the relevant interest in such building, structure or works.
- (2) The relevant interest under this part means, in relation to any expenditure incurred on the construction of a building, structure or works, the interest in such building, structure or works to which the company which incurred the expenditure was entitled.

Commented [KVK6]: This provision is not in PIA. Paragraph 2 below provides clarity and full treatment of pre-production expenditure.

- (3) Where a company incurs qualifying building expenditure or qualifying drilling expenditure on the construction of a building, structure or works, the company is entitled to two or more interests, and one of those interests is an interest which is reversionary on all the others, that interest shall be the relevant interest for the purpose of this part.
- (4) Where the owner of the relevant interest is not the licensee or lessee, the qualifying capital expenditure and the capital allowance accruing therefrom shall be to the benefit of the holder of the licence or lease.

4. Capital Allowance

- (1) Where in any accounting period, a company has incurred qualifying expenditure wholly and exclusively for the purpose of upstream petroleum operations applicable to crude oil carried on by it, there shall be due to that company as from the accounting period in which the expenditure was incurred, an allowance at the appropriate rate specified in the table to this part.
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, there shall be recorded in the capital allowance computation schedule for statistical purposes until the asset is disposed, 1% of the qualifying capital expenditure, which being a notional amount, shall not increase or reduce the amount of capital allowance claimable under this part.
- (3) Any asset or part of it in respect of which capital allowance has been granted, shall not be disposed, except on the authority of a certificate of disposal issued by the Commission.

5. Asset to be in use

Subject to paragraph 15 of this part, a capital allowance in respect of qualifying expenditure incurred on an asset shall be due to a company for any accounting period if at the end of the accounting period it was the owner of that asset and the asset was in use for the purpose of the upstream petroleum operations applicable to crude oil carried on by it.

6. Residue

The residue of a qualifying expenditure, in respect of an asset, at any date, is the total qualifying expenditure incurred on or before the date, by the owner, in respect of that asset, less the total of any capital allowance made, in respect of that asset, before that date.

7. Disposal of qualifying capital expenditure

Under this part —

- (a) a building, structure or works of a permanent nature is disposed where any of the following events occur
  - (i) the relevant interest is sold,
  - (ii) that interest, being an interest depending on the duration of a concession, comes to an end at the end of that concession,
  - (iii) that interest, being a leasehold interest, comes to an end and the possession of the building, structure or works of a permanent nature reverts to the holder of the reversionary interest, or
  - (iv) the building, structure or works of a permanent nature are demolished, destroyed or, without being demolished or destroyed, cease to be used for the purpose of upstream petroleum operations applicable to crude oil carried on by the owner;
- (b) plant, machinery or fixtures are disposed if they are sold, discarded or cease to be used for the purposes of upstream petroleum operations applicable to crude oil carried on by the owner; and
- (c) assets in respect of which qualifying drilling expenditure is incurred are disposed if they are sold or cease to be used for the purpose of the upstream petroleum operations applicable to crude oil of the company incurring the expenditure, either on the company ceasing to carry on the operations, or on such company receiving insurance or compensation money therefrom.

8. Value of an asset or interest in a petroleum prospecting licence or petroleum mining lease

- (1) The value of an asset or interest in a petroleum prospecting licence or petroleum mining lease at the date of its disposal shall be the net proceeds of the sale of the asset or of the relevant interest, or, where it was disposed without being sold, the amount which, in the opinion of the Service, the asset or the relevant interest may realise in the open market at that date, less the amount of expenses which the owner might reasonably be expected to incur if the asset were so sold.
- (2) For the purpose of this paragraph, where an asset is disposed of in the circumstances that insurance or compensation money are received by the owner, the asset or the relevant interest shall be treated as having been sold and as if the net proceeds of the insurance or compensation money were the net proceeds of the sale.
- (3) Subparagraph (2) of this paragraph shall not apply where the compensation monies received by the owner is used for the replacement of the asset lost or destroyed, and the allowance to be granted under this part, in respect of the new asset, shall where the compensation received together with the residual or scrap value of the old asset, where applicable, is —

- (a) greater than the cost of the new asset acquired, be limited to the residue of the old asset; and
- (b) lower than the cost of the new asset, be
  - (i) the amount claimable in respect of the residue of the old asset,
  - (ii) full allowance in respect of the additional asset acquired, being the amount with which the cost of that new asset acquired exceeds the compensation together with the residual or scrap value.

9. Part of an asset

Any reference in this part to any asset shall be construed whenever necessary, to include a reference to a part of an asset or an undivided part of the asset in the case of joint interests, and when so construed, any necessary apportionment shall be made in a manner, which in the opinion of the Service, is just and reasonable.

10. Apportionment

- (1) Any reference in this part to the disposal, sale or purchase of any asset or interest includes a reference to the disposal, sale or purchase of that asset, together with any associated asset, whether or not qualifying expenditure has been incurred on such associated asset.
- (2) Where an asset is disposed, sold, or purchased together with another asset, the proportion of the value of the assets, on a just apportionment, attributable to the first mentioned asset shall, for the purposes of this part, be the value of, or the price paid for the assets.
- (3) For the purpose of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, assets or interest purchased or disposed in one bargain shall be deemed to be purchased or disposed together, notwithstanding that separate prices are or purport to be agreed for each of the assets, or that there are or purport to be separate purchases or disposals of the assets.
- (4) The provisions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph shall apply, with modifications, to the sale or purchase of the relevant interest in any asset together with any other asset or relevant interest in that other asset provided that the provisions for apportionment in this paragraph shall not apply in the sale or disposal of concessions or interest in a part of the asset.

11. Exclusion of certain expenditure

Where any company has incurred expenditure which is allowed to be deducted under any provision of this Act, other than a provision of this part, such expenditure shall not be treated as qualifying expenditure.

12. Asset used or expenditure incurred partly for the purpose of petroleum operations

- (1) The following provisions of this paragraph shall apply where either or both of the following conditions apply with respect to any asset, the
  - (a) owner of the asset has incurred in respect of the asset a qualifying expenditure partly for the purpose of upstream petroleum operations applicable to crude oil carried on by him and partly for other purposes; or
  - (b) asset in respect of which the owner has incurred qualifying expenditure is used partly for the purpose of upstream petroleum operations applicable to crude oil carried on by such owner and partly for other purposes.
- (2) Any allowance which would be due if both expenditures were incurred wholly and exclusively for the purposes of the upstream petroleum operations applicable to crude oil and if the asset were used wholly and exclusively for the purposes of such operations, shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of this part.
- (3) The allowances computed in accordance with subparagraph (2) shall be treated, as in the opinion of the Service is, just and reasonable having regard to all circumstances and to the provisions of this part.

13. Disposal without change of ownership

- (1) Where an asset in respect of which qualifying expenditure has been incurred is disposed in such circumstances that the owner retains the ownership, for the purposes of determining the amount of capital allowance, the owner shall be deemed to have bought the asset immediately after the disposal for a price equal to the residue of the qualifying expenditure at the date of the disposal.
- (2) Capital allowance shall be for the computation of hydrocarbon tax and not for cost recovery purposes in production sharing contracts, which shall have their own provisions under the model contract.

14. Capital allowance rates

(1) Qualifying expenditure shall be subject to the rates below —

Qualifying Capital Expenditure	1 st	2 nd	3 rd	4 th	5 th

Qualifying Plant Expenditure	20%	20%	20%	20%	20%
Qualifying Pipeline Expenditure	20%	20%	20%	20%	20%
Qualifying Building Expenditure	20%	20%	20%	20%	20%
Qualifying Drilling Expenditure	20%	20%	20%	20%	20%

(2) Exploration expenditure and the first two appraisal wells expenditure in the same field are to be treated as deductible costs 100% in the year incurred, while for additional exploration expenditures and appraisal expenditures in the same field relating to pre-production period are to be amortised and deducted on commencement of accounting period at a capital allowance of 20% per annum.

15. Extension of application of "in use"

- (1) For the purpose of this part, an asset shall be deemed to be in use during a period of temporary disuse.
- (2) For the purpose of paragraphs 4 and 5 of this part, where an asset acquired for the purpose of petroleum operations has not been used for the petroleum operations carried on by the owner, the asset shall be deemed to be in use for the purposes of that petroleum operations on the date on which such expenditure was incurred, provided that where an allowance has been given in consequence of this subparagraph and the first use to which the asset is put is not for the petroleum operations, or it is not put to use within five years from the date the expenditure was incurred, capital allowance claimed on such assets shall be withdrawn and the amount assessed to tax.

PART III

CAPITAL ALLOWANCE FOR PETROLEUM OPERATIONS UNDER PETROLEUM PROFITS TAX AND DEEP OFFSHORE AND INLAND BASIN PRODUCTION SHARING CONTRACTS

[Sections 91,94,95,191]

1. Interpretation

(1) For the purposes of this part —

"concession" includes an oil exploration licence, an oil prospecting licence, an oil mining lease, any right, title or interest in or to petroleum oil in the ground and any option of acquiring any such right, title or interest;

"lease" includes an agreement for a lease where the term to be covered by the lease has begun, any tenancy and any agreement for the letting or hiring out of an asset, but does not include a mortgage, and all cognate expressions, including "leasehold interest", shall be construed accordingly and —

- (a) where, with the consent of the lessor, a lessee of any asset remains in possession thereof after the termination of the lease without a new lease being granted to him, that lease shall be deemed for the purposes of this part to continue so long as he remains in possession as aforesaid; and
- (b) where, on the termination of a lease of any asset, a new lease of that asset is granted to the lessee, the provisions of this part shall have effect as if the second lease were a continuation of the first lease;

"qualifying expenditure" means, expenditure incurred in an accounting period which is —

- (a) capital expenditure (qualifying plant expenditure) incurred on plant, machinery or fixtures;
- (b) capital expenditure (qualifying pipeline and storage expenditure) incurred on pipelines and storage tanks;
- (c) capital expenditure (qualifying building expenditure), other than expenditure which is included in paragraphs (a), (b) or (d) of this paragraph, incurred on the construction of buildings, structures or works of a permanent nature; or
- (d) capital expenditure (qualifying drilling expenditure) other than expenditure which is included in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of this paragraph, incurred in connection with, or with petroleum operations #### in view of -

- the acquisition of petroleum deposits, or rights in or over the petroleum deposits.
- (ii) searching for or discovering and testing petroleum deposits, or winning access thereto, or
- (iii) the construction of any works or buildings which are likely to be of little or no value when the petroleum operations for which they were constructed cease to be carried on,

provided that, for the purposes of this definition qualifying expenditure shall not include any sum which may be deducted under the provisions of section 91 of this Act.

- (2) For the purposes of this paragraph
  - (a) expenditure incurred by a company before its first accounting period, ascertained without the qualification contained in the subparagraph (1)(d) of this paragraph shall be deemed to be qualifying expenditure incurred by it on the first day of its first accounting period; and
  - (b) where the asset referred to in subparagraph (a) has been disposed by the company before the beginning of its first accounting period, any loss incurred by the company on the disposal of such asset shall be deemed to be qualifying petroleum expenditure incurred by the company on that day and be deemed to have brought into existence an asset owned by the company, in use for the purposes of its petroleum operations, and any profit realised by the company on such disposal shall be treated as income of the company under section 90(1)(d) of this Act in its first accounting period.

2. Provisions relating to qualifying petroleum expenditure

- (1) For the purposes of this part where
  - (a) a company has incurred expenditure before its first accounting period and the expenditure would have been treated as such qualifying petroleum expenditure, ascertained without the qualification contained in subparagraph (1)(d) of paragraph 1, if it had been incurred in the first accounting period; and
  - (b) such expenditure has not brought into existence an asset, such expenditure, ascertained in the case of sub-paragraph (1)(a) of this paragraph without such qualification, shall be deemed to have brought into existence an asset owned by the company incurring the expenditure and in use for the purposes of such petroleum operations.

(2) For the purposes of this part, an asset in respect of which qualifying drilling expenditure has been incurred by a company for the purposes of petroleum operations carried on by it during any accounting period of the company, and which has not been disposed, shall be deemed not to cease to be used for the purposes of such operations where such company continues to carry on such operations.

3. Relevant interest

- (1) Under this part, where an asset consists of a building, structure or works, the owner shall be taken to be the owner of the relevant interest in such building, structure or works.
- (2) The relevant interest" under this part, means, in relation to any expenditure incurred on the construction of a building, structure or works, the interest in such building, structure or works to which the company which incurred such expenditure was entitled.
- (3) Where, a company incurs qualifying building expenditure or qualifying drilling expenditure on the construction of a building, structure or works, the company is entitled to two or more interests, and one of those interests is an interest which is reversionary on all the others, that interest shall be the relevant interest for the purposes of this part.

4. Petroleum investment allowance

- (1) For the purposes of part III of chapter three of this Act and subject to the provisions of this part, where a company has incurred any qualifying capital expenditure wholly and exclusively for the purposes of petroleum operations carried on by it, there shall be due to that company, for the accounting period in which that asset was first used for the purposes of such operations, an allowance, in this part called "Petroleum Investment Allowance", at the appropriate rate set forth in Table I of this part.
- (2) For the purpose of part III of chapter three of this Act, the Petroleum Investment Allowance shall be added to the capital allowance computed under paragraph 5 of this part and shall be subject to the same rules under part III of chapter three of this Act.

5. Capital allowance

- (1) Where in any accounting period, a company owning an asset has incurred qualifying expenditure wholly and exclusively for the purposes of petroleum operations carried on by it, there shall be due to the company as from the accounting period in which such expenditure was incurred, an allowance at the appropriate rate specified in Table II of this part.
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, there shall be recorded in the capital allowance computation schedule for statistical purposes until the asset is disposed, 1% of the qualifying capital expenditure, which being a notional amount, shall not increase or reduce the amount of capital allowance claimable under this part.

(3) Any asset or part thereof in respect of which capital allowance have been granted shall not be disposed except on the authority of a Certificate of Disposal issued by the Commission.

6. Asset to be in use at end of accounting period

A capital allowance in respect of qualifying expenditure incurred on an asset shall be due to a company for any accounting period if at the end of the accounting period it was the owner of that asset and the asset was in use for the purposes of the petroleum operations carried on by it.

7. Residue

The residue of qualifying expenditure, in respect of an asset, at any date, is the total qualifying expenditure incurred on or before that date, in respect of the asset, less the total of any capital allowance made, in respect of that asset, before that date.

8. Disposal of qualifying expenditure

Under this part —

- (a) a building, structure or works of a permanent nature is disposed where
  - (i) the relevant interest therein is sold; or
  - (ii) that interest, being an interest depending on the duration of a concession comes to an end, on the coming to an end of that concession; or
  - (iii) that leasehold interest terminates without the person who holds it acquiring the reversionary interest, which is the right of the owner of the underlying title to possess the land when the leasehold scheme expires; or
  - (iv) the building, structure or works of a permanent nature are demolished or destroyed or, without being demolished or destroyed, cease to be used for the purposes of petroleum operations carried on by the owner.
  - (b) plant, machinery or fixtures are disposed if sold, discarded or cease to be used for the purposes of petroleum operations carried on by the owner: and
  - (c) assets in respect of which qualifying drilling expenditure is incurred are disposed if they are sold or cease to be used for the purposes of the petroleum operations of the company incurring the expenditure either on such company ceasing to carry on all such operations or on such company receiving insurance or compensation monies therefrom.

9. Value of an asset

- (1) The value of an asset at the date of its disposal shall be the net proceeds of the sale thereof or of the relevant interest, or, if it was disposed without being sold, the amount which, in the opinion of the Service, such asset or the relevant interest may realise in the open market at that date, less the amount of expenses which the owner might reasonably be expected to incur if the asset were so sold.
- (2) For the purposes of this paragraph, if an asset is disposed of in such circumstances that insurance or compensation monies are received by the owner, the asset or the relevant interest, shall be treated as having been sold and as if the net proceeds of the insurance or compensation monies were the net proceeds of the sale.
- (3) Subparagraph (2) of this paragraph shall not apply where the compensation monies received by the owner is used for the replacement of the asset lost or destroyed, and the allowance to be granted under this part, in respect of the new asset, shall where the compensation received together with the residual or scrap value of the old asset, where applicable, is
  - (a) greater than the cost of the new asset acquired, be limited to the residue of the old asset; and
  - (b) lower than the cost of the new asset, be
    - (i) the amount claimable in respect of the residue of the old asset;
    - (ii) full allowance in respect of the additional asset acquired, being the amount with which the cost of that new asset acquired exceed the compensation together with the residual or scrap value.

10. Part of an asset

Any reference in this part to any asset shall be construed whenever necessary to include a reference to a part of an asset or, an undivided part of the asset in the case of joint interests, and when so construed any necessary, apportionment shall be made as may, in the opinion of the Service, be just and reasonable.

11. Apportionment

- (1) Where a qualifying asset is disposed, sold, or purchased together with a non-qualifying asset, the proportion of the value of the assets as, on a just apportionment, attributable to the qualifying asset shall, for the purposes of this part, be the value of or the price paid for the assets.
- (2) For the purposes of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, assets purchased or disposed in one bargain shall be deemed to be purchased or disposed together, notwithstanding that separate prices are or purport to be agreed

- for each of the assets or that there are or purport to be separate purchases or disposals of the assets.
- (3) The provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall apply, with any necessary modifications, to the sale or purchase of the relevant interest in an asset together with any other asset or relevant interest in any other asset

12. Extension of application of "in use"

- (1) For the purposes of this part, an asset shall be deemed to be in use during a period of temporary disuse.
- (2) For the purposes of paragraphs 4, 5 and 6 of this part where an asset acquired for the purposes of petroleum operations has not been used for the petroleum operations carried on by the owner, the asset shall be deemed to be in use for the purposes of that petroleum operations on the date on which the expenditure was incurred, provided that where an allowance has been made in consequence of this subparagraph and the first use to which the asset is put is not for the petroleum operations, additional assessments shall be made to counteract the benefit obtained from the giving of the allowance
- (3) The approval of the Service shall be obtained for the purpose of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

13. Exclusion of certain expenditure

- (1) Where any company has incurred expenditure which is allowed to be deducted under any provision of this Act, other than a provision of this part, such expenditure shall not be treated as qualifying expenditure.
- (2) Where any company has incurred expenditure on any ocean-going oil tanker plying between Nigeria and any other territory, that expenditure shall not be treated as qualifying expenditure for the purpose of this part.

14. Asset used or expenditure incurred partly for the purpose of petroleum operations

- (1) The following provisions of this paragraph shall apply where, either or both of the following conditions apply with respect to any asset
  - (a) the owner of the asset has incurred in respect thereof qualifying expenditure partly for the purposes of petroleum operations carried on by him and partly for other purposes;
  - (b) the asset in respect of which qualifying expenditure has been incurred by the owner is used partly for the purposes of petroleum operations carried on by such owner and partly for other purposes.

- (2) Any allowance which would be due if both expenditures were incurred wholly and exclusively for the purposes of the upstream petroleum operations applicable to crude oil and if the asset were used wholly and exclusively for the purposes of such operations, shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of this part.
- (3) The allowances computed in accordance with subparagraph (2) shall be treated, as in the opinion of the Service is, just and reasonable having regard to all circumstances and to the provisions of this part.

15. Disposal without change of ownership

Where an asset in respect of which qualifying expenditure has been incurred is disposed in such circumstances that the owner retains the ownership, for the purposes of determining the amount of capital allowance, the owner shall be deemed to have bought the asset immediately after the disposal for a price equal to the residue of the qualifying expenditure at the date of the disposal.

SECOND SCHEDULE

EXPORT PROCESSING AND FREE TRADE ZONE ENTITIES

[Section 60]

- This schedule applies to the export processing and free trade zones, (the zones) and approved export processing and free trade zone entities, (the entities).
- 2. In this Schedule, "export processing and free trade zone entities" has the same meaning as that ascribed to it in the Nigeria Export Processing Zones Act and Oil and Gas Free Zones Authority Act.
- 3. Subject to paragraph 4 of this Schedule and the provisions of section 57 of this Act, the profits of an entity licensed to operate in a relevant zone are fully exempt from tax where not less than 100% of its sales arise from the export of goods or services produced by such entity, or serve as inputs into goods or services exclusively for export.
- 4. Where at least 75% of goods or services produced by a licensed entity in a year of assessment is exported, or serve as inputs into goods or services, at least 75% of which are exported, tax shall accrue proportionately on the profits of the entity in that year of assessment in respect of goods or services sold within the customs territory.
- Where, in a year of assessment, more than 25% of the sales of a licensed entity occur in the customs territory, the whole profits of the entity shall be taxed in Nigeria and all other reliefs granted under this Act and the law of the relevant zone shall not apply.
- 6. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Schedule or any other law, a licensed entity shall comply with all relevant provisions of the Nigeria Tax Administration Act including those requiring
  - (a) registration:
  - (b) filing of tax returns; and
  - (c) deduction of tax at source.
- 7. Where an entity in a zone contracts out manufacturing services or any of its approved activity within the zone to a related or connected resident company that is not an entity in the zones, all income derived from the sale by the entity in the zone of the goods produced shall be treated as the income of the related or connected resident company, except the Service is satisfied that the transaction provided was conducted at arm's length.
- 8. Where a resident company, which is not an entity in the zones, provides services other than manufacturing services to a related or connected entity in the zones, the provisions of the Transfer Pricing Regulations shall apply to the transaction.

 Services rendered to a licensed entity by a person in the custom territory or services consumed by a free zone entity within the custom territory shall be chargeable to applicable transaction taxes.

THIRD SCHEDULE DEDUCTIBLE INTEREST

[Sections 20, 91]

- Notwithstanding any provisions of chapter two of this Act, where a Nigerian company or permanent establishment of a non-resident company in Nigeria, incurs any expenditure by way of interest or of similar nature in respect of debt issued by a connected person, the excess interest thereon shall be a disallowable deduction for the purpose of chapter two of this Act.
- 2. For the purposes of paragraph (1) of this Schedule, the excess interest shall mean an amount of total interest paid or payable to a connected person in excess of 30% of earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortisation of the Nigerian company in that accounting period.
- Nothing contained in paragraph (1) of this Schedule shall apply to a Nigerian subsidiary of a foreign company which is engaged in the business of banking or insurance.
- 4. Where for any assessment year, the interest expenditure is not wholly deducted against income, the interest expenditure that has not been deducted, shall be carried forward to the following assessment year or assessment years, and it shall be allowed as a deduction against the profits, if any, of any business carried on by it and assessable for that assessment year to the extent permitted in accordance with paragraph (2) of this Schedule,
  - provided that interest expenditure shall not be carried forward under this paragraph for more than five assessment years immediately succeeding the assessment year for which the excess interest expenditure was first computed.
- 5. For the purposes of this Schedule, the expression "debt" means any loan, financial instrument, finance lease, financial derivative, or any arrangement that gives rise to interest, discounts or other finance charges that are deductible in the computation of income chargeable under the head "profits and gains of business or profession".

FOURTH SCHEDULE INDIVIDUALS' INCOME TAX RATES

[Section 58]

After the relief allowance and exemptions had been granted in accordance with subsection (1) of section 30 of this Act, the taxable income ascertained shall be taxed at the following rates —

- (a) First N800,000 at 0%;
- (b) Next N2,200,000 at 15%;
- (c) Next N9,000,000 at 18%;
- (d) Next N13,000,000 at 21%;
- (e) Next N25,000,000 at 23%; and
- (f) Above N50,000,000 at 25%.

INCOME FROM SETTLEMENTS, TRUSTS AND ESTATES

[Sections 16, 26]

PART I

Income from settlements, trusts and estates

- Subject to part II of this Schedule and notwithstanding part III of this Schedule, the income of a settlement or trust shall for all the purposes of chapter two of this Act be deemed to be the income of the settlor or person creating the trust, where the —
  - (a) settlor or person retains or acquires an immediately exercisable general power of appointment over the capital assets of the settlement or trust or over the income derived therefrom;
  - (b) settlor or person makes use, directly or indirectly, by borrowing or otherwise, of any part of the income arising under the settlement or trust; or
  - (c) settlement or trust is revocable in circumstances whereby that settlor or person, or the spouse, resumes control over any part of the income or assets comprised therein, provided that a settlement or trust shall not be regarded as revocable solely by reason of the fact that an income or asset comprised therein may revert to that settlor or person, or the spouse, in the event of a beneficiary predeceasing that settlor or person, or of the happening of an uncertain event upon which the settlement or trust is limited.

- For the purposes of parts I and II of this Schedule, the income of a settlement or trust, other than a settlement or trust to which the provisions of paragraph 4 of this Schedule apply, or of the estate of a deceased individual shall be, in the case of a —
  - (a) resident person, income derived from a source in Nigeria and outside Nigeria; and
  - (b) non-resident person, income derived from a source in Nigeria and income brought into or received in Nigeria.
- 3. The amount of income (computed income) of each period of twelve months ending on 31 December in each year shall be ascertained as though the provisions of chapter two of this Act and the relevant provisions of the Nigeria Tax Administration Act is applicable and
  - (a) there shall be deducted
    - (i) any expenses of the trustee or executor relative to the settlement, trust or estate which is authorised by the terms of the deed of settlement or trust or of the will, and

- (ii) any annuity of fixed annual amount paid out of the income of the settlement, trust or estate in accordance with the provisions of the deed or will: and
- (b) where the income includes any gain or profit from a trade, business, profession or vocation, or a rent or premium, there shall be added or deducted, any sum which would have been added or deducted in the relevant year of assessment under the provisions of chapter two of this Act, as if the income from those sources had been the assessable income of an individual for that year ascertained under the provisions of section 28 of this Act.
- 4. The computed income of a year for a settlement, trust or estate shall be apportioned for the purpose of assessment in the following manner
  - (a) where
    - (i) the terms of the deed of settlement or trust or of a will provide that the whole income of the settlement, trust or estate after deduction of any authorised expense or annuity of fixed amount is to be divided in specific proportions among the beneficiaries entitled thereto, or
    - (ii) by operation of law, on an intestacy, the income of an estate is to be divided in the manner referred to in subparagraph (a)(i) of this paragraph, the income of each beneficiary for a year of assessment from the settlement, trust or estate shall be his similarly apportioned share of the computed income:

- (b) where a trustee or executor has discretion to make any payment, other than a payment on account, to a beneficiary out of the income of a settlement, trust or estate in such amount as he deems fit
  - (i) the amount of the payment to a beneficiary made in the course of a year shall be treated as income of that year which is assessable to tax in the hands of that beneficiary, and
  - (ii) out of the remainder of the computed income after deducting the aggregate amount of all the payments during any year, there shall be apportioned to each beneficiary who has any specified proportional interest in the income of the settlement, trust or estate, the amount obtained by applying the proportion to that remainder, provided that where the aggregate amount exceeds the computed income, the amount of each payment to be treated as income in the hands of a beneficiary under this subparagraph shall be reduced proportionally such that the aggregate amount does not exceed the computed income;

(c) any remainder of the computed income of a settlement, trust or estate of any year after deducting all amounts apportioned to beneficiaries, or treated as income in the hands of beneficiaries under the provisions of subparagraph (b) of this paragraph shall be apportioned to the trustee or executor for assessment in his name as trustee of the settlement or trust or as executor of the estate.

PARTI

Special provisions as to settlement on unmarried children

- 5. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of chapter two of this Act, where, by virtue or in consequence of a settlement and during the life of the settlor an income is paid to or for the benefit of a child of the settlor in a year of assessment, the income shall, where at the time of payment the child was an infant and unmarried, be treated for the purposes of chapter two of this Act as the income of the settlor for that year and not as the income of any other person.
  - (2) Income paid to or for the benefit of a child of a settlor shall not be treated as provided in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph for any year of assessment where the aggregate amount of the income paid to or for the benefit of that child does not exceed the National Minimum Wage or its equivalent.
  - (3) This paragraph shall not apply in relation to an income arising under a settlement in a year preceding a year of assessment if the settlor is not a resident of Nigeria during that year of assessment and the income is not derived from, brought into or received in Nigeria.
- 6. For the purposes of paragraph 5 of this Schedule
  - (1) Income which, by virtue or in consequence of a settlement, may become payable or applicable to or for the benefit of a child of the settlor in the future shall be deemed to be paid to or for the benefit of that child; and
  - (2) An income dealt with in accordance with subparagraph (1), which is not required by the settlement to be allocated, at the time when it is so dealt with, to any particular child or children of the settlor shall be deemed to be paid in equal shares to or for the benefit of each of the children to or for the benefit of whom or any of whom the income or assets representing the income will or may become payable or applicable.
- 7. (1) Where, by virtue of paragraph 5 of this Schedule, an income tax becomes chargeable on and is paid by the settlor, he shall be entitled to
  - (a) recover from any trustee or other person to whom the income is payable by virtue or in consequence of the settlement the amount of the tax paid; and
  - (b) require the relevant tax authority to issue the settlor a certificate specifying the amount of income in respect of which he has paid tax and the amount of the tax so paid, and any certificate issued shall be conclusive evidence of the facts.

- (2) Where the settlor obtains from a trustee or any other person a payment in excess of the amount he is entitled to recover under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, an amount equal to the excess shall be paid by him to the trustee or other person to whom the income is payable by virtue or in consequence of the settlement, or, where there are two or more such persons, the amount shall be apportioned among those persons as required.
- (3) Where a question arises as to the amount of any payment or as to any apportionment to be made under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, that question shall be decided by the relevant tax authority, and the provisions of Nigeria Tax Administration Act as it relates to objection and appeal shall apply as though such decisions were an assessment.
- 8. (1) In the case of any settlement where there is more than one settlor, paragraph 5 of this Schedule shall, subject to the provisions of this paragraph, have effect in relation to each settlor as if he was the only settlor.
  - (2) In the case of a settlement referred to in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, income originating from the settlor may, for the purposes of paragraph 5 of this Schedule, be taken into account, in relation to any settlor, as income paid by virtue or in consequence of the settlement to or for the benefit of a child of the settlor.
  - (3) References in this paragraph to income originating from a settlor shall include references to the following
    - (a) income from property which that settlor has provided directly or indirectly for the purposes of the settlement;
    - (b) income from property representing that property, including accumulated income from that property; and
    - (c) income from any property which represents both properties in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph and other property as, on a just apportionment, represents the property in subparagraph (3)(a).

9. In this part —

"child" includes a stepchild, an adopted child and an illegitimate child;

"settlement" includes any disposition, trust, covenant, agreement, arrangement or transfer of assets:

"settlor" in relation to a settlement, includes a person by whom the settlement was made or entered into directly or indirectly, and in particular including a person who has provided or undertaken to provide funds directly or indirectly for the purpose of the settlement, or has made with another person a reciprocal arrangement for that other person to make or enter into a settlement.

PART III

Supplementary provisions

10. For the purposes of chapter two of this Act and part I of the First Schedule to this Act, where an asset of a trade or business, profession or vocation forms part of the estate of a deceased individual, being an asset in respect of which capital allowance may be claimed in arriving at the total income of that individual for the year of assessment in which the individual died, the estate shall be deemed to have incurred qualifying expenditure on the acquisition of the asset equal in amount to the residue of the expenditure on the day following the death of the individual.

[First Schedule]

- 11. An individual in receipt of an annuity of fixed annual amount paid out of the income of a settlement, trust or an estate shall be assessable to tax on the full amount of the annuity.
- 12. The income arising from a settlement, trust or an estate assessable to tax under a provision of this Schedule in the hands of any settlor, trustee, executor, beneficiary or annuitant for a year of assessment shall be the amount of the income ascertained under the foregoing provisions of this Schedule of the year preceding that year.
- 13. (1) Where the income of a settlement, trust or estate of a year includes an income which is taxable in Nigeria and elsewhere, whether by deduction or otherwise, the provisions of chapter four of this Act with respect to any relief to be given or repayment to be made shall apply as though the whole of the taxed income were receivable by the persons to whom the computed income of that year is apportioned under the provisions of paragraph 4 of this Schedule
  - (a) in due proportion to their respective shares therein; or
  - (b) where paragraph 4(b) of this Schedule applies in proportion to their shares in the remainder of the computed income as therein specified, and where there is no computed income, the relief or repayment shall be given or made to the trustee or executor for the account of the settlement, trust or estate.
  - (2) For the purposes of this paragraph, references to an individual in chapter two of this Act shall be deemed to include references to a trustee or executor.
- 14. Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Schedule
  - (a) a trustee of a settlement or trust, and every executor, shall be answerable for all things to be done in connection with the tax under this Act; and
  - (b) an income apportioned to a trustee or executor shall be assessable by the relevant tax authority in relation to that settlement, trust or estate.
- 15. A trustee of a settlement or trust in Nigeria, and the executor of an estate in Nigeria, shall prepare accounts of the income from all sources of the settlement, trust or estate for successive periods to 31 December in each year, and to the date on which the assets of the settlement, trust or estate are finally distributed.

16. An objection or appeal against the application of any provision of this Schedule shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Nigeria Tax Administration Act.

SIXTH SCHEDULE

PRODUCTION ALLOWANCES AND COST PRICE RATIO LIMIT

1. Production Allowance

- (1) There shall be a production allowance for crude oil production by leases which are converted oil mining leases based on a conversion contract and their renewals, which shall be the lower of US $2.50 per barrel and 20% of the fiscal oil price.
- (2) There shall be a production allowance per field for crude oil production by a company for leases granted after the commencement of the Petroleum Industry Act and determined as follows
  - (a) for onshore areas, the lower of US $8.00 per barrel and 20% of the fiscal oil price per barrel up to a cumulative maximum production of 50 million barrels from commencement of production and the lower of US $4.00 per barrel and 20% of the fiscal oil price thereafter; and
  - (b) for shallow water areas, the lower of US $8.00 per barrel and 20% of the fiscal oil price, up to a cumulative maximum production of 100 million barrels from commencement of production and the lower of US $4.00 per barrel and 20% of the fiscal oil price thereafter.
- (3) The detailed procedures for determining the production allowances shall be established in regulations.
- (4) Any allowance for crude oil shall also apply to condensates and liquid natural gas liquids under section 65(2)(a) of this Act.

2. Cost Price Ratio (CPR) Limit

- (1) All costs prescribed under section 68 of this Act and under Part II of the First Schedule to this Act, excluding those related to section 68(1)(a), (b) and (h), in an accounting period the sum of which is eligible for deduction under the hydrocarbon tax shall be subject to a cost price ratio limit of 65% of gross revenues determined at the measurement points.
- (2) Where, as a result of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, any excess costs incurred is not allowed for deduction for that year of assessment
  - (a) the costs may be allowed for deduction for the purposes of ascertaining the profits of the company for subsequent years of assessment provided that the total costs to be deducted shall not exceed the actual costs incurred;

- (b) the total costs to be allowed as deduction in those subsequent years shall be such an amount that if added to the sum of the total costs to be allowed as deduction under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall not exceed the specified cost price ratio limit of 65%; and
- (c) where under paragraph 2(2)(b) of this paragraph, any cost exceeds the cost price ratio limit upon the termination of upstream petroleum operations related to crude oil, such costs shall not be deductible for the purpose of calculation of the hydrocarbon tax.

SEVENTH SCHEDULE PETROLEUM ROYALTY

PART I

ADMINISTRATION OF ROYALTIES

1. Royalties on petroleum production

- (1) The Service shall administer royalties payable in accordance with the provisions of the Nigeria Tax Administration Act.
- (2) All production of petroleum, including production tests is liable to royalty on a non-discriminatory basis, payable by the licensee or lessee.

2. Royalties to be paid in cash

Royalties shall be paid by the licensee or lessee in cash in accordance with the Nigeria Tax Administration Act, based on the fiscal oil price and fiscal gas price determined by the Commission, or realisable price determined in accordance with section 113 of this Act in the case of production sharing contract under part III of chapter three of this Act.

3. Provision of monthly schedule to the Service

The Commission shall provide to the Service a monthly schedule of production and chargeable volume by each company engaged in petroleum operations determined for the field at the measurement points or deemed measurement points, fiscal oil price and fiscal gas price determined for the field at the measurement points, and other relevant information for the determination of royalties.

DETERMINATION OF CHARGEABLE VOLUMES AND PRICES FOR ROYALTIES

4. Measurement Point for the determination of production volumes

The measurement of crude oil, condensates, natural gas and natural gas liquids, and the procedures for determining production and chargeable volumes for royalties purposes shall be in accordance with the Seventh Schedule to the Petroleum Industry Act and applicable regulations or guidelines issued by the Commission.

5. Determination of price for royalty

The fiscal oil price applicable to crude oil and condensates, and the fiscal gas price applicable to natural gas and natural gas liquids for the field at the measurement points shall be as determined by the Commission in accordance with the Seventh Schedule to the Petroleum Industry Act and applicable regulations or guidelines issued by the Commission.

ROYALTIES FOR PART I OF CHAPTER THREE OF THIS ACT

6. Determination of royalties for part I of chapter three of this Act

- (1) Royalties payable shall be determined on a monthly basis, in the case of
  - (a) crude oil and condensates, the royalties shall be based on production in accordance with subparagraph (2) of this paragraph and by price in accordance with subparagraph (3); and
  - (b) natural gas and natural gas liquids, the royalties shall be based on production in accordance subparagraph (4), provided that condensates shall be treated as crude oil and natural gas liquids shall be treated as natural gas for the purpose of this part.

Royalty based on production

- (2) For the purpose of this paragraph
  - (a) royalties based on production shall be calculated on a field basis;
  - (b) the royalty shall be at a rate per centum of the chargeable volume of the crude oil and condensates produced from the field area in the relevant month on terrain basis as follows
    - (i) onshore areas 15%,
    - (ii) shallow water (up to 200m water depth) 12.5%,
    - (iii) deep offshore (beyond 200m water depth) 7.5%; and
    - (iv) frontier basins 7.5%;
  - (c) for deep offshore fields with a production during a month of not more than 50,000 bopd, the royalty rate shall be 5% and the share of the production above 50,000 bopd shall be at the royalty rate specified in clause (b) of this subparagraph;
  - (d) royalties for onshore fields and shallow water fields, including marginal fields, with crude oil and condensate production not more than 10,000 bopd during a month shall be at a rate per centum of the chargeable volume of the crude oil and condensates produced from the field area per production day during a month on tranched basis as follows
    - (i) for the first 5,000 bopd 5%, and
    - (ii) for the next 5,000 bopd, for the share of production over 5,000 bop -7.5%.

provided that for fields with crude oil and condensate production more than 10,000 bopd during a month, the share of the production over 10,000 bopd during a month shall be at the royalty rates specified under clause (b) of this subparagraph.

- (e) with respect to clauses (c) and (d) of this subparagraph, where a single field covers two or more petroleum mining leases, the royalty shall be determined based on the total production from the field;
- (f) royalty based on production for natural gas and natural gas liquids shall be at a rate of 5% of the chargeable volume and royalty rate for natural gas produced and utilised in-country shall be 2.5% of the chargeable volume; and
- (g) where a field is located partially in onshore and in shallow water or partially in shallow water and deep offshore areas, the weighted average royalty shall be calculated in accordance with regulations.

Royalty by price

- (3) There shall be payable, in addition to the royalty set out in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph for onshore, shallow water and deep offshore
  - (a) a royalty by price with respect to crude oil and condensates at the rates set out below
    - (i) below US $50 per barrel 0%,
    - (ii) at US $100 per barrel 5%.
    - (iii) at US $150 per barrel and above 10%, and
    - (iv) between US $50 and US $100 per barrel and between US $100 and US $150 per barrel, the royalty by price shall be determined based on linear interpolation, as an example, if in 2020 the price is US $75 per barrel, the royalty by price shall be 2.5%, and the price levels mentioned in sub-clauses (i), (ii) (iii) and (iv) of this clause shall apply to the year 2020, and at the beginning of 2021 and of each succeeding calendar year these price levels shall be increased by 2% relative to the values of the previous year;
  - (b) there shall be no royalty by price for frontier acreages; and
  - (c) royalty derived from "royalty by price" shall be for the credit of the Nigerian Sovereign Investment Authority.

TWELFTH SCHEDULE

Items on which tax is suspended under section 187 of this Act

[Section 187]

1. Items on which Value Added Tax Collection may be delayed

Charging and collection of VAT on the following items shall commence on the date indicated by the Minister, by an Order issued in the Official Gazette —

- (a) petroleum products;
- (b) renewable energy equipment; and
- (c) compressed natural gas (CNG).

2. Items on which the Minister may vary the classification

The following items may be classified as exempt or zero-rated supplies by an order issued by the Minister in the Official Gazette —

- (a) all equipment, components and infrastructure related to the conversion and installation or expansion of Compressed Natural Gas (CNG) and Liquefied Petroleum Gas (LPG), including conversion kits; and
- (b) all services relating to the conversion and installation of Compressed Natural Gas (CNG) and Liquefied Petroleum Gas (LPG).

3. Interpretation

For the purposes of this Schedule —

"petroleum products" means automotive gas oil, aviation turbine kerosene, premium motor spirit, household kerosene and locally produced liquefied petroleum gas;

"renewable energy equipment" means equipment used in producing renewable, green or low-carbon energy from renewable resources, such as sunlight, wind, the movement of water, and geothermal heat; and

"compressed natural gas" means fuel gas mainly composed of methane (CH4), compressed to less than 1% of the volume it occupies at standard atmospheric pressure.

THIRTEENTH SCHEDULE

DETERMINATION OF RESIDENCE

[Sections 15(7), 16, 17]

1. Foreign employments

An individual, not being a person to whom section 3(1)(a)(iv) of the Nigeria Tax Administration Act applies, who holds a foreign employment on 1st January in a year of assessment, or who first becomes liable to income tax in Nigeria for that year by reason of his entering that employment during that year, shall be deemed to be resident for that year —

- (a) where the duties are wholly performed outside Nigeria, in the territory in which the principal office of his employer is situated on that day or on the day his foreign employment commences, as the case may be; and
- (b) where the duties are performed or exercised in Nigeria for a foreign employer, in the place of residence, and in the absence of such, in the place where the person usually resides.

2. Nigerian employment

An individual who holds a Nigerian employment on 1st January in a year of assessment, or who first becomes liable to income tax in Nigeria for that year by reason of his entering that employment during that year, shall be deemed to be resident for that year in the territory in which he has a place or principal place of residence on that day or, as the case may be, on the day on which he enters upon the full duties of that employment in Nigeria, provided that if the individual is on leave from a Nigerian employment on 1st January in a year of assessment, he shall be deemed to be resident for that year by reference to his place or principal place of residence immediately before his leave began.

3. Other employments

- (1) An employee whose remuneration is subject to income tax in Nigeria for a year of assessment, but who has no place or principal place of residence in the territory of a State in Nigeria for that year under the provisions of paragraphs 2 of this Schedule, shall be deemed to hold a foreign employment, and if he has no territory of residence in a State for that year under the provisions of paragraph 1 of this Schedule, shall be deemed to be a person to whom section 3(1)(a)(iv) of the Nigeria Tax Administration Act applies.
- (2) This paragraph shall apply to an employee who is subject to income tax in Nigeria for a year of assessment, but whose place of residence is in the Exclusive Economic Zone of Nigeria or territorial waters of Nigeria beyond the littoral States and has no principal place of residence in any of the littoral States.

4. Partnership

The "principal place of residence" in relation to an individual who is a partner in a Nigerian partnership shall, where the individual is —

- (a) engaged in the performance or exercise of the duty of the partnership, be the territory in Nigeria of the office where he performs or exercises the duty of the partnership;
- (b) a dormant partner in the partnership, be the territory in Nigeria which he usually resides; and
- (c) a dormant partner that does not reside in a territory in Nigeria, be deemed to be a person to whom section 3(1)(a)(iv) of the Nigeria Tax Administration Act refers.

5. Pensions

- (1) An individual whose only source of earned income arising in Nigeria on 1st January in a year of assessment was a pension, and who had a place or principal place of residence on that day shall be deemed to be resident for that year in the territory in which that place or principal place of residence was situated on that day.
- (2) An individual whose only source of earned income arising in Nigeria on 1st January in a year of assessment was a pension, and who had no place of residence on that day, shall be deemed to be resident for that year, if the pension is
  - (a) a Nigerian pension wholly payable by the Government of one territory, not being a Nigerian pension in respect of which section 2(1)(a)(iv) of the Nigeria Tax Administration Act applies, in that territory;
  - (b) not a Nigerian pension, in the territory in which the principal office in Nigeria of the pension fund or other person authorising payment of the pension is situated.
- (3) An individual whose only source of earned income arising in Nigeria on 1st January in a year of assessment was a Nigerian pension, and who had no place of residence on that day shall, if the pension is payable by more than one government, or payable by a person other than a government or if there are two or more pensions arising in different territories to the individual on that day, be subject to section 2(1)(a)(iv) of the Nigeria Tax Administration Act.

6. Other earned income

An individual, other than a corporation sole or body of individuals, who has a source of earned income in Nigeria for a year of assessment, other than an employment or a pension, shall be deemed to be resident for that year in the territory in which he had a place or principal place of residence on 1st January in that year- provided that —

(a) where the source of the income is first acquired by the individual during the year of assessment, and he had no place or principal place of residence on the first day of that year, he shall be deemed to be resident for that year in the territory where he first establishes a place of residence during that year; and

(b) in any other case where the individual had no place or principal place of residence, he shall be deemed to be resident for that year in any territory from which his earned income arising in Nigeria is derived, or the territory from which any part of the earned income is derived, if the income is derived from more than one territory.

7. Unearned income

An individual, other than a corporation sole or body of individuals, who has no source of earned income in Nigeria for a year of assessment but who has one or more source of unearned income in Nigeria for that year shall be deemed to be resident for that year in the territory in which he has a place or principal place of residence on 1st January of that year, provided that where —

- (a) all the unearned income of the individual for that year arises in one territory, and he has no place of residence on that day, he shall be deemed to be resident for that year in that territory;
- (b) the unearned income of the individual arises for that year in more than one territory, and he has no place of residence on that day, he shall be deemed to be resident for that year in the territory from which any part of the unearned income arises.

8. Application

- (1) Where the territory of residence of an individual for a year of assessment may be determined under more than one of the preceding paragraphs of this Schedule, it shall be determined by the first-numbered paragraph which is applicable to his circumstances.
- (2) Where, by reason of sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph, or otherwise, a determination of residence of an individual for a year of assessment falls to be revised, and the tax authority that raised an assessment is other than that territory in which the individual is finally determined to be resident for that year, the first-mentioned tax authority shall discharge any assessment made by it on the income of the individual for that year.

9. Corporation sole or body of individuals

A corporation sole or body of individuals other than a family or community shall be deemed to be resident for a year of assessment in the territory in which its principal office in Nigeria is situated on 1st January in that year or, if it has no office in Nigeria on that day, in a territory in which any part or the whole of its income liable to tax in Nigeria arises for that year.

10. Family income

Income of a family shall be taxed only by the territory in which the member of that family who customarily receives that income in the first instance in Nigeria usually resides.

11. Trust

Income of a trustee of any settlements or trusts, or estates or to an executor of any estate of a deceased person, shall be taxed only by the territory in which the settlor or the person creating the trust is resident and to the extent provided in the Sixth Schedule to this Act.

12. Interpretation

In this Schedule -

"dormant partner" in relation to a partnership means a partner that does not take active part in the performance of the duties of the partnership;

"earned income" in relation to an individual, means income derived by him from a trade, business, profession, vocation or employment earned on or exercised by him and a pension derived by him in respect of a previous employment;

"foreign employment" means an employment the duties of which are wholly performed outside Nigeria save during any temporary visit of the employee to Nigeria or performed or exercised in Nigeria for a foreign employer;

"Nigerian employment" means any employment, not being a foreign employment, the duties of which are wholly or partly performed in Nigeria;

"Nigerian pension" means a pension in respect of past service under, and payable by, a resident person or a government in Nigeria;

"place of residence" in relation to an individual, means a place available for his domestic use in Nigeria on a relevant day, and does not include any hotel, rest house or other place at which he is temporarily lodging unless no permanent place is available for his use on that day:

"principal place of residence" in relation to an individual with two or more places of residence on a relevant day, not being both within any one territory means in the case of an individual —

- (a) with no source of income other than a pension in Nigeria, that place where he usually resides;
- (b) who has a source of earned income other than a pension in Nigeria, that place where on a relevant day is nearest to his usual place of work;
